Navy Discharging 10,000 Monthly

OTTAWA (CP)—The navy is discharging men at the rate of 10,000 a month and its strength will be near 70,000 by the end of September, it was learned today.

$11,000 Holdup

TORONTO (CP)—An $11,000 hold-up at the terminal warehouse near the waterfront in downtown Toronto was reported to police this afternoon. Details were not available immediately.

Herriot Heads Party

PARIS (AP)—Edouard Herriot was elected president of the Radical Socialist Party today. He was the party's honorary president until it was dissolved by Marshal Petain in 1940.

118 Arrested

NEW YORK (AP)—The F.B.I. announced today 118 men throughout the U.S.—stewards, waiters and cooks—had been arrested in connection with a dining car racket on meal checks which cost two railroads more than $100,000 over a period of a year. The lines are the New York Central and the Erie Railroad.

Dockyard Gets Cancel Order on Three Frigates

Authorities at H.M.C. Dockyard confirmed today that three naval frigates, brought from the Atlantic since V-E Day for refitting in preparation to participating in the Pacific War, would be returned to the east coast with no further work being done on them here.

The vessels, it was understood, would leave as soon as they could be prepared for sailing.

Stores and electrical equipment sent here from the east for the three vessels are being sent to Vancouver today for storage.

Work on the vessels was started on the arrival here, but was brought to a halt on V-J Day. The frigates are now being prepared for sailing, and will leave shortly.

Meanwhile, Fred Bevis, spokesman for the Shipyard General Workers' Council, said today that 19 frigates at east coast ports were being refitted and tropicalized for participation in Pacific Ocean patrol work.

He said the unions could not understand why west coast shipyards had not received their share of this work, which would have given employment to men in every department of the shipyards here.

MAY DEARM SHIPS

While no official word was available from Ottawa, it was expected here at H.M.C. Dockyard that work would start soon on dearming coastal merchant and passenger ships.

With entrance of Japan into the war, most vessels employed in coastal trade were fitted with cannon and anti-aircraft guns. Now the war is over these guns, supplied by the navy, will be removed and probably stored here.

Not adaptable to peacetime use, naval transports on which work was halted at V-E Day, on V-J Day, may be turned over shortly to the War-time Assets Corp. for disposal in their present condition.

In Vancouver it was reported C. L. Dewar, president of War-time Shipbuilding Ltd., would probably recommend to the government disposal of the transports. He left for Ottawa Wednesday night after discussion of shipbuilding plans with Vancouver builders.

Disposal of incomplete vessels for which orders had been canceled is not the concern of War-time Shipbuilding, Mr. Dewar said.

Equipment on the vessels, Vancouver builders said, was too expensive for freight-carrying or other commercial use and removal of the equipment would be an extensive and costly job.

NO LAYOFF LOOMS

No further layoffs were in immediate prospect in Victoria's two large shipyards although officials word from Ottawa was still lacking on pre-end-of-the-war contracts.

The fact Victoria Machinery Depot Co. Ltd. has received no word to halt work on China coastal type freighters and an amusement ship indicates that these vessels will be finished.

Meanwhile, H. S. Hammill of V.M.D., said he would rather not make any statement when questioned whether that firm had bid for contracts to build ships for Dutch interests.

British, Chinese Laying Claim to Occupy Hongkong

CHUNGKING (AP)—Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer declared today the Chinese and British governments are negotiating on the subject of whose forces shall occupy Hongkong and accept the surrender of the Japanese garrison there.

The statement made at a press conference, followed a Chinese announcement which included the former British crown colony among the areas to be occupied by Chinese troops. The announcement said Gen. Chang Fuh-kwei had been designated to receive the Japanese surrender.

British authorities in Chungking had declined comment, but a Chinese army spokesman said that since Hongkong was in the China theatre the high command "naturally had assumed responsibility to accept the Japanese surrender there."

Clear Statement Made by Attlee

LONDON (Reuter)—Prime Minister Attlee said in the House of Commons today the Japanese surrender in Hongkong, crown colony in China, would be accepted by a British commander.

Mr. Attlee was replying to his predecessor, Winston Churchill, who wanted to know whether the government was taking steps to restore British administration in the colony.

He replied with an emphatic "yes, sir," and added: "Plans for re-establishing British administration in the colony are fully prepared."

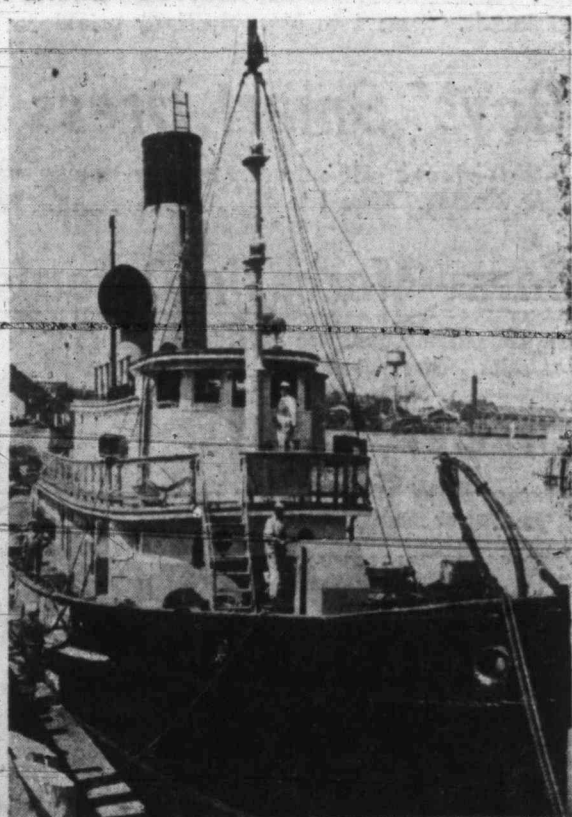

After expressing gratification at the statement, Mr. Churchill said:

"May I presume that you recall that on numerous occasions... the British government have made it plain that they did not contemplate any modification in the sovereignty of British territories in the Far East?"

In reply, Mr. Attlee promised to keep this in mind. Earlier, a Foreign Office spokesman had said occupation of Hongkong "will be our responsibility in that it is British territory."

The House cheered Mr. Attlee's statement that a British commander would accept the Hongkong surrender. Chinese instructions to Japanese envoys in China Tuesday stipulated the surrender of the crown colony would be to a Chinese commander.

Familiar Colors Return

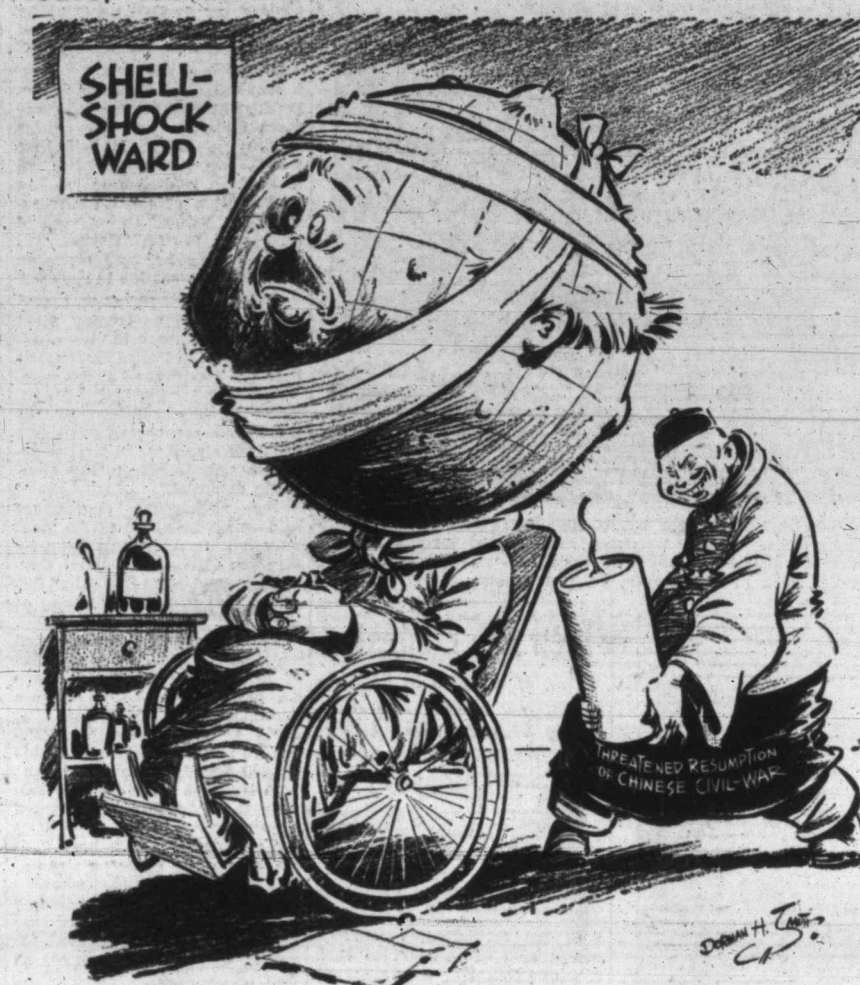

Tug Nanoose, Repainted

Painters this week began the long job of dolling up the ships of the B.C. Coast Service fleet. Following the outbreak of war the painters splashed coats of naval grey on the ships from waterline to masthead. Windows and portholes were painted black and guns were installed on the bridges and sterns. Wheelhouses were reinforced.

The ships are to have their familiar colors restored and visitors to the C.P.R. docks Wednesday found painters at work on the tug Nanoose. The funnel was buff colored again with a black top. The superstructure was a glistening white with brown and buff trimmings. The hull was being painted black to the waterline. Later the Nanoose will be hauled out on marine ways and her underwater plates painted red.

All ships of the fleet, from the big Princesses down, will be repainted but this is a big job and will take some time.

Big 3 To Unite in Action To Halt Spread of Civil War in China

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Times in a Washington dispatch said today the United States, Great Britain and Russia would undertake joint political action to halt an incipient civil war in China.

The dispatch also said authoritative Washington sources had stated the three great powers planned a joint occupation of Korea.

The recent agreement reached at Moscow by Premier T. V. Soong of China included plans for eventual Chinese sovereignty over Manchuria and Inner Mongolia, the Times said. Manchuria and Inner Mongolia now are occupied in whole or part by Russian forces.

The dispatch also said the agreement included Russian control of 50 per cent of the Chinese Eastern and Southern Manchurian railways; designation of Port Arthur as a Russian naval and military base, and probable reservation of half the docks and commercial facilities of Dairen for Russian commercial use.

CHUNGKING (AP)—The New China Daily News, Communist organ published in Chungking, declared today that Communist forces in north central China had "gathered their strength for an all-out offensive" and were marching on a series of key cities.

One Communist column already has reached the west rail-road station at Tientsin and street fighting now is in progress in the city, the paper declared.

Other Communist forces were reported approaching the towns of Wamping and Nanyuan, close to Peiping, and the port of Tsingtao in Shantung province was said to have been surrounded.

In Anhwei province, the paper said, Communist forces entered Wuhu on the Yangtze River 55 miles upstream from Nanking.

Britain to Retain Some War Controls At Least 5 Years

LONDON (CP)—The government today introduced legislation seeking broad authority to retain for at least five years many of its wartime emergency controls, including the right to peg prices and regulate services and supplies.

Majority leader Herbert Morrison, Hugh Dalton, Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Sir Stafford Cripps, President of the Board of Trade, presented the measure to the House of Commons.

The purposes of the measure were stated to be:

"To secure at fair prices a sufficient and equitable distribution of those supplies and services essential to the well-being of the community."

"To facilitate the readjustment of industry and commerce to the requirements of the community in time of peace."

"To assist in the relief of suffering and the restoration and distribution of essential supplies and services in any part of His Majesty's dominions or in foreign countries that are in grave distress as a result of the war."

The measure would give the government power to make "such regulations as appear to be necessary or expedient for controlling prices" to be charged for goods or services of any description.

12 of 1,000 Jews In Norway Survive, Quisling Court Told

OSLO, Norway (AP)—A pale Jewish doctor still bearing the marks of a German concentration camp, told the court at Vidkun Quisling's trial today that of nearly 1,000 Norwegian Jews sent to Poland, only 12 were known to have survived.

Quisling, Germany's puppet accused of treason, is charged with the murder of the nearly 1,000 Jews on the grounds of responsibility for their deportation.

Dr. George Eichinger, a German-born Jew sent to a German concentration camp, said only 600 of Norway's 1,600 Jews escaped the German dragnet and the average life-expectancy of men sent to the Auschwitz Camp in Poland was one month. Of 267 in the group in which he was deported, 140 were sent to gas chambers immediately and killed, he declared.

Another state witness today said Quisling in 1925, when he was a captain in the Norwegian army, offered to spy on the Norwegian general staff and to organize a "Red Guard." The witness said the offer was made in a discussion with a Communist party editor.

Quisling, pale and agitated, insisted he never had heard of the gas chambers, and also denied a state accusation that he had embezzled government funds.

Testifying on the fourth day of his trial, Quisling told the court that by payments to the Germans he was able to keep 260,000,000 kroner from getting into their hands. (The krona was valued at 45 cents before the war).

Blast at Portland Factory Kills 1

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—An explosion that knocked housewives from their chairs 50 blocks away rocked the Iron Fireman Manufacturing Company's plant today, killing one and injuring an undetermined number of workers.

Police reported a workman, Michael Keck, was killed. A nearby hospital admitted five men shortly after the blast, and a more distant hospital said it was expecting 17 casualties.

Firemen battled a fire started by the explosion. The plant was not actually in flames, but fire officials said oil stores in the basement were burning.

The tremendous explosion, which set off alarm clocks in distant sections of the city, lifted a 100-foot square section of corrugated metal roof into the air. It fell back, exactly in place.

Jap People Warned To Take Occupation By Allies Quietly

Heavy Sentences On Canadians for Aldershot Riots

ALDERSHOT, Eng. (Reuter)—Three Canadian soldiers, convicted of charges arising out of riots here last July 4 and 5, have been given sentences ranging from seven years' penal servitude to two years' imprisonment with hard labor, a court-martial finding promulgated today by Canadian military authorities said.

The men were convicted at a Canadian general court-martial held here about three weeks ago, but the sentences were not published until the court's findings had been reviewed.

All three had faced mutiny charges, punishment for which could have been death, but had been cleared of the major allegations.

Cpl. (acting sergeant) Emmanuel Schuler, 25, of Burnstall, Sask., convicted on two charges, was reduced to the ranks and sentenced to seven years' penal servitude. He formerly served with the Canadian Armored Corps.

Pte. Lloyd States, a 22-year-old negro from New Glasgow, N.S., convicted on three charges, was sentenced to five years' penal servitude. He was a member of an infantry unit.

Both Schuler and States will be committed to a British civil prison, pending their transfer to Canada.

Pte. J. L. MacIntyre, convicted on one charge, was sentenced to two years' imprisonment with hard labor.

MacIntyre, 23, comes from St. Avards, P.E.I., and served with the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps. He will be sent to a Canadian military prison.

Canadian Treason Trial Still Secret

FARNBOROUGH, Hampshire, Eng. (CP)—The treason trial of Pte. J. G. Galaher of Windsor, Ont., was in its fourth day today with military secrecy still cloaking proceedings.

The press was barred from the room in Corunna Barracks here where the trial was being held, and witnesses and members of the court were under orders not to talk about the case.

Military sources had no comment to make about a report from Ottawa that British personnel also were involved in the trial.

Quisling, pale and agitated, insisted he never had heard of the gas chambers, and also denied a state accusation that he had embezzled government funds.

Testifying on the fourth day of his trial, Quisling told the court that by payments to the Germans he was able to keep 260,000,000 kroner from getting into their hands. (The krona was valued at 45 cents before the war).

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Rules by which the Japanese people will remain "unperturbed" and calm when for the first time in their history occupation forces land on the home islands next week, were laid down today by the Japanese home ministry's police bureau.

The Japanese Domei agency in a broadcast recorded here by the Federal Communications Commission said the rules of conduct included:

1. People must refrain from causing "unnecessary confusion."
2. Police and gendarmes will remain on duty.
3. The people should refrain from individually approaching the occupation troops. However, when approached by a member of the occupation troops the people should display courtesy.
4. To prevent misunderstanding through difference of language, it was suggested all neighborhood associations and villages be equipped with English-speaking persons.
5. In any event, the people must not resort to fistfights or display any violence.

An extraordinary session of the Japanese Diet will be convened Sept. 2 and 3, Domei said today in another broadcast recorded here by the Federal Communications Commission.

Japanese newspapers and political leaders have been calling for an emergency session of the parliament to "meet the new situation," establish controls for reconstruction and to set up a new political system.

General tenor of the demands has been to break down Nippon's wartime totalitarian party and replace it with the prewar multiple-party system.

Newspapers said establishment of a new political system should be followed promptly by an election.

MANILA (AP)—Conquered Japan and the conquering Allies will formally end the war Aug. 31 by signing the surrender document on Tokyo Bay aboard the battleship Missouri, which only a month ago was hurling shells into the Japanese homeland.

Gen. MacArthur announced these final details today while his headquarters disclosed actual capitulation on the field is proceeding in advance of the official ceremony.

Surrender of several thousand Japanese in northern Luzon was arranged Wednesday despite "adamant" opposition of their commander, and similar negotiations were moving ahead on Mindanao and Cebu.

Tokyo also messaged Gen. MacArthur's headquarters that Japanese Red Cross workers aided by Swiss and Swedish legations are preparing to visit Japan's seven major prisoner-of-war camps Friday to assist in evacuating prisoners and civil internees to embarkation points. Whether the mission actually will transport prisoners to the ports or merely plan their later transportation was not clear.

MacARTHUR TO FLY

Gen. MacArthur himself will land at Tokyo's Atsugi airport Tuesday, weather permitting, along with thousands of airborne occupation troops. On the same day, marines and sailors will occupy the great Yokosuka naval base in Tokyo Bay. Later—the date was not designated—thousands of troops will land in the Sagami Bay occupation zone.

The Japanese have been ordered, meantime, to evacuate all key occupations and to disarm their ships, all coastal guns and other defenses in the initial occupation zone, and to surrender all ships and submarines at sea to Allied ports.

Imperial headquarters again today radioed to Gen. MacArthur that Japanese were encountering serious difficulties in China due to "the activities of irregular forces, bandits and disturbances of mobs." It made a similar report four days ago. Gen. MacArthur replied he had forwarded the complaint to China.

"In spite of our utmost efforts to avoid the calamities of war, the situation in China has not been improved," said today's message. It asked Gen. MacArthur to reconsider his order disarming the Japanese army in China.

60,000 TO LAND

Japan's Domei agency—which has broadcast most of the occupation news hours or days ahead of Gen. MacArthur's announcements—said the initial occupation force would be 50,000 to 60,000. It also reiterated that initial landings, from the air, would be made on Sunday, although Gen. MacArthur's radioed instructions to the Japanese government indicated first occupation forces would fly in on Tuesday with him.

Japan today asked Gen. MacArthur to permit limited ship movements "after the prescribed hour" because "there may be found within Japanese waters some motor sailing vessels of more than 100 tons not provided with radio equipment," which accordingly would not have received the Allied instructions via Tokyo.

Some other vessels may not have equipment to transmit on the radio frequencies that Gen. MacArthur specified, the message added.

Russians Occupy All of Manchuria, Half of Sakhalin

LONDON (CP)—Generalissimo Stalin announced tonight the Red Army had occupied the whole of Manchuria.

Red troops have occupied a second island in the Kuriles, Paramushiro, just south of Shumushu which was taken by airborne troops Wednesday, the broadcast order of the day announced, and the Japanese Kwantung Army in Manchuria has ceased resistance and laid down its arms.

All of Sakhalin Island, the southern half of which was held by Japan, also has been taken over by the Red Army, Premier Stalin disclosed.

QUISLING AT MASS GRAVES—Grim faced, Vidkun Quisling, whose name is synonymous with traitor, is on trial for his life in Oslo. Among crimes of which he is accused is the murder of Norwegian patriots, whose bodies were found buried in mass graves in Norway's Trandum Forest. He is shown above in the horror forest under close guard.

Seattle Girls on 300-Mile Bike Trip

Three Seattle girls are in Victoria today on a 300-mile cycling trip through Vancouver Island and Olympic Peninsula.

Mary Drew, Abeline Anderson and Helen Underhill started out on V-J Day from Seattle by boat, took the ferry from Vancouver to Nanaimo and pedaled to Victoria. They traveled 15 miles the first day and 51 miles the second.

Taking the ferry Friday morning to Port Angeles, the girls plan to cycle down the Olympic Peninsula, along the Hood Canal and up to Allyn, Wash., where they will stay on a farm before returning to Seattle, Labor Day.

Full Leather Soles Now, Says W.P.T.B.

The order covering repairs to civilian footwear has been revoked, permitting use of a full leather sole in repairs now, C. H. Booth, local representative of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board, said today.

The order is effective immediately, he said. Since the inception of the order only half-soles could be used.

Unions Discuss Ways to Increase Numbers of Jobs

Methods of finding jobs for union men released from war industry were discussed at length Wednesday night at a meeting of the Victoria and District Trades and Labor Council.

The following suggestions were made:

1. Meetings be arranged with employers to establish a shorter work week in the shipyards with reconversion pay until war workers can be placed in other positions. Reconversion pay, the unions felt, should be the responsibility of the Dominion government.

2. Discussion be held with municipal councils, Chamber of Commerce and other groups that may be in a position to submit job opportunities in the immediate future.

3. Extension of the compulsory school age to 18 and extension of facilities to those who desire to pursue scholastic training further.

4. Preparations to meet with business men to co-operate to fulfill any business enterprise that may be feasible.

5. Return of salesmen in war industries to their former jobs.

6. Unions should not allow their members to take other jobs whenever there is a surplus of manpower.

7. Building of trackless trolley buses for Victoria transportation at Yarrows Ltd.

8. Erection of an adequate machine shop at Esquimalt so that more marine repair work could be done than at present.

9. Compulsory repairing of C.P.R. ships in this area.

10. Employment of a majority of Canadians on C.P.R. vessels engaged in trade with the Orient.

11. Development of Esquimalt as a docking area for ocean vessels.

NO PART AT MEETING

The council unanimously endorsed the resolution that no part be taken by it in the mass meeting called for tonight by the Shipyard General Workers Federation.

AGAINST MASS MEETINGS

"Committee meetings must be arranged between the two groups which are in the mind more sound and more effective than mass meetings which give political leaders the opportunity of practicing their oratory," said the council's report of the meeting.

The municipalities of Saanich and Esquimalt notified the council that they will support a resolution relating to the Shops Regulations and Weekly Half-Holiday Act at the forthcoming convention of the Union of B.C. Municipalities.

Results of court cases involving voting time pay for shipyard workers were reported to the council.

"In as much as the matter is considered a national issue, all labor councils across the Dominion will be contacted in an attempt to carry the matter to its utmost conclusion," said the council.

Backing was sought by the Council of Social Agencies in its move to impress—the federal authorities with the need of immediate appointment of a prison commission. Unions will be asked to take action on resolutions from the recent conference on penal reform.

The secretary was instructed to write to the City Council informing them that they should get down to a definite program of action on matters pertaining to the welfare of the citizens as a whole rather than a minority of citizens hungry for the dollar of the tourists.

No Large-Scale Move Of Veterans to Land

The million-acre tract of land which was set aside by the provincial government for use of veterans under the Veterans' Land Act Administration, has yet to be inspected and approved by the federal authorities, Hon. E. T. Kenney, Minister of Lands, said today.

Some veterans are not waiting for the Veterans' Land Act Administration to get around to approving the land but are taking up land by purchase or lease direct from the provincial department.

There is no concerted or large-scale movement of veterans to take up land in the province as yet Mr. Kenney said, but they are dribbling in at the rate of two or three a week.

It would be possible for them to take up land on a homestead basis but the majority find it preferable to purchase the land outright, Mr. Kenney said, as it gives them more freedom to do what they wish with it.

A veteran who wants assistance for clearing his land has the same privilege of applying for aid under the land clearing legislation as the Farmers' Institutes, Mr. Kenney said.

Sangamon Ripped by Kamikaze

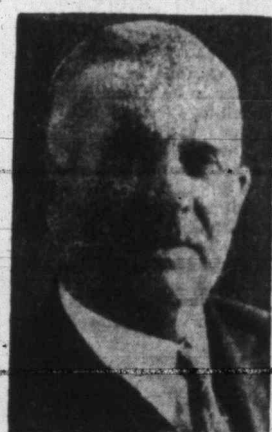

Officers and crewmen of the U.S.S. Sangamon survey damage caused by Jap. suicide plane which crashed into flight deck of the ship. Gaping holes, charred wreckage and twisted girders indicate ferocity of the attack. Despite heavy damage suffered in battle off the Ryukyus, the escort carrier made its way 12,000 miles back to Portsmouth, Va., for repairs.

Hit by anti-aircraft fire just before it seemed certain to crash into its target, Jap suicide plane swerves down past catwalk to plunge into the sea beside escort carrier U.S.S. Sangamon. One of several other suiciders exploded in center of flight deck.

Premier to Resign In Nova Scotia

HON. A. S. MACMILLAN

HALIFAX (CP)—Hon. A. S. MacMillan, 73-year-old Premier of Nova Scotia, announced Wednesday he will shortly resign from leadership of the Nova Scotia Liberal Party, to be followed by his resignation as Premier in favor of the selection of a younger leader to guide the party through the trying years of the postwar period.

A statement issued by the Premier said he had suggested the Nova Scotia Liberal Association should call a convention of the Liberal Party at which a new leader would be selected, "who in due course I shall recommend to be appointed as Premier of Nova Scotia."

He expressed the belief that since a provincial election would be held at the end of 1946 it was only fitting the new leader should have sufficient time to set his house in order and arrange for any reorganization deemed necessary before calling an election.

It has been speculated that Hon. Angus L. Macdonald, Premier of this province from 1933 to 1940, might again take up the reins as leader of the Nova Scotia Liberals. Mr. Macdonald was Minister of National Defence for Naval Service in the Dominion government from 1940 until last year.

"In arriving at this decision," Premier MacMillan's statement said, "I have tried to take a broad outlook not only of the political horizon, but generally of the best interests of the whole of the people of Nova Scotia.

"The past five years since I took over the important duties as Premier of this province have been indeed strenuous, and the coming years may prove more so. This being the case, I feel that a younger man should be at the head of the Liberal Party and Premier of this province."

Mr. MacMillan was born Nov. 1, 1871, at Upper South River, Antigonish County, N.S.

Ban on Salary Increase Lifted

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Internal Revenue Bureau has formally relaxed restrictions on United States salary increases in the $5,000 a year or higher brackets.

The action, taken by the Bureau's salary stabilization unit, followed a similar step ordered last week by President Truman for salaries under $5,000 which are under the jurisdiction of the War Labor Board.

Bishop of London Subject of Protest

LONDON (CP)—Nearly 200 persons shouting "you are hirelings of Rome" disturbed the confirmation Wednesday of Dr. J. W. C. Wand as Bishop of London for the Church of England.

Bishop Wand succeeds Dr. Geoffrey F. Fisher, who was elevated to Archbishop of Canterbury.

Two formal protests on the grounds that Dr. Wand was "a Roman Catholic and not a fit and proper person for the position" were presented to Vicar General Sir Phillip Wilbraham in the vestry prior to the ceremony.

Officials Say Europe's Needs Demand Canadian Meat Rationing

OTTAWA (CP)—Dr. G. S. H. Barton, deputy Minister of Agriculture, said in a statement issued today that even if farmers market their less desirable and off-grade cattle earlier than usual, Canada will not be able to achieve the current undertaking in supplying meat to the United Kingdom and liberated Europe.

Dr. Barton's statement, issued jointly with one from the Prices Board, reviewed Canada's present meat situation and the events leading up to it. It said that unless there was wholehearted support in reduction of civilian consumption of meat under rationing scheduled to be imposed early next month, "Canada will not be doing her full share in preventing starvation in Europe."

The statement put at rest speculation as to the coming meat rationing in Canada in view of reports from the United States that it might be revoked there soon.

Speaking for the Prices Board, F. S. Girdale, administrator of meat and meat products, said livestock slaughter control regulations now in effect "are absolutely essential."

The agriculture department said an investigation of the meat situation in April this year by representatives of Britain, Canada and the United States had disclosed that meat was "in one of the worst positions."

At that time Canada's expected supplies for export were placed at 200,000,000 pounds of carcass and boneless beef, with a possible additional 25,000,000 pounds if it could be made available; 465,000,000 pounds of bacon and 114,000,000 pounds of canned meat.

In the first six months of this year the Canadian Meat Board exported the equivalent of 80,000,000 pounds of carcass beef, 255,000,000 pounds of bacon and 51,000,000 pounds of canned meat.

The statement said that to date in the second six months of 1945 the Meat Board has secured for export only 3,500,000 pounds of beef.

The slaughter of 825,000 head, it was estimated, would enable Canada to fulfill her canned meat undertaking but, even on the basis of restricted consumption, it would provide only another 80,000,000 pounds of beef for export. This would leave a deficit of 40,000,000 pounds without taking into account the requested additional 25,000,000 pounds.

With the war over, additional supplies of beef would gradually become available. But Denmark was the only country in Europe from which supplies of meat were available to other countries. The total amount Denmark could supply was only a fraction of the need.

World shortages also prevailed in sugar, oils and fats and milk products.

120,000 Japanese on Bypassed Islands Start Surrendering

GUAM (AP)—Surrender of the estimated 120,000 Japanese in the by-passed islands of the central Pacific is under way.

Representatives of probably 2,500 troops, 1,000 naval personnel and 1,000 civilians on Mill in the eastern Marshalls signed papers of capitulation Wednesday.

As the first such action of a by-passed garrison, it was regarded here as the trickle which will become a flood.

The estimated 120,000 occupy bases in the Marshalls and Carolines, extending east-west more than 2,000 miles, with fortress Truk the outstanding one. Another estimated 70,000 are in the Solomons, New Ireland and New Britain.

For more than a year Japanese garrisons have held on grimly in the by-passed islands although short of food and ammunition.

Mill, an atoll of 18 by 30 miles, had been by-passed for 18 months, but only Monday the Japanese signalled they were ready to throw down their arms.

Australians were keeping an aerial reconnaissance eye for signs that the big Japanese gar-

GARRISON GOES HUNGRY

MANILA (AP)—The Japanese have asked Gen. MacArthur's permission to send food to their starving garrison on Marcus Island, 1,200 miles southeast of Tokyo.

Text of the message, monitored by the Associated Press here, indicated the island's food supply "will be completely exhausted on Sunday."

John Wilkie Dies

A widely-known retired staff sergeant of the B.C. Police force, John J. Wilkie, 83, died here Tuesday. Mr. Wilkie served with the provincial police in many parts of British Columbia and took part years ago in the search for Gun-a-noot, Indian accused of murdering two white men and evaded capture for 15 years.

Bomb Didn't Slow Wasp

BREMERTON, Wash. (AP)—A bomb smashing through the flight deck of the U.S. aircraft carrier Wasp last March 19 killed 103 and injured 285, but the carrier did not waver from her position in a task force 65 miles off the coast of Japan. The navy says the Wasp, which put in here for repairs, not only kept her place in the fleet but continued to launch planes on schedule.

Japanese Report Bose, Puppet Died in Hospital

NEW YORK (AP)—Tokyo radio said today that Subhas Chandra Bose, head of the "provisional government" which the Japanese attempted unsuccessfully to set up in India, died Sunday in a hospital in Japan from injuries sustained in an airplane accident.

Only the latter part of last May Bose still had his headquarters in Burma.

Bose, a leftist leader, was at one time president of the All-India Congress Party.

He resigned as president, however, in April, 1939, after three days of unsuccessful negotiations with Mohandas K. Gandhi over matters concerning the party's working committee. Bose said at the time Gandhi had refused to help him nominate a new committee on the grounds that he and Bose were poles apart politically.

On July 2, 1940, Bose was arrested under the Defence of India Regulations at Calcutta, a city of which he had been mayor a decade before. He was charged with being involved in a plot to raise the "Black Hole" memorial. He was released in December after a hunger strike, and the next month a warrant was out for him on charges of failing to appear in court on the seven-month-old charge. He later was reported to have gone either to Rome or Berlin to sign with the Axis. He long had praised fascism.

Subsequently his voice was heard on the Berlin radio.

In June, 1943, he was reported by the Tokyo radio to have been in Japan.

His next stop was at Singapore, where in July, 1943, he set up the "provisional Indian government," later transferring his headquarters to Burma.

JAPS FOLLOW THE LEADER—Maj. Gen. Charles A. Willoughby, right, G-2 officer of Gen. MacArthur's staff and head of the U.S. party which received the Jap surrender envoys, leads the way to waiting automobiles immediately after the 16 Japs arrived at Nichols Field, Manila, from Ie Shima. The climax will come Aug. 31, when on the U.S. battleship Missouri in Tokyo Bay the Japs sign the surrender terms, with Gen. MacArthur representing the Allies.

Kaiser May Build Cars At Willow Run Plant

SPOKANE (AP)—Senator Homer Ferguson (R-Mich.) said the Kaiser-Frazer Co., owned jointly by Henry J. Kaiser and the Graham-Paige Corp., is "officially negotiating a lease" on the $96,000,000 Willow Run bomber plant.

The senator made the announcement after conferring by telephone with Kaiser and Joseph W. Frazer.

He said the plant would be used in the manufacture of two automobiles—the Kaiser and Frazer—and farm machinery.

Graham-Paige directors are to consider the proposed terms of the lease at a meeting Aug. 29.

Von Ribbentrop Most Depressed, Goering Calm As Trial Awaited

NUERNBERG JAIL, Germany (AP)—This massive, ancient jail has five wings, like the fingers of a hand, and in the little-finger wing are 14 once-powerful Nazi leaders awaiting trial for their lives as war criminals.

They are waiting quietly—Hermann Goering, Franz Papen, Joachim von Ribbentrop and other top-ranking survivors of Hitler's "New Order"—while hammers clatter outside.

Said Col. Burton C. Andrus of Denver, Colo.: "We've got them in good shape, in the proper mental state, and we want to keep them that way."

It was Andrus and his staff, with some help from other units, who built and maintained the great interrogation centre at Mondorf, Luxemburg, which originally held top Nazi criminals. Besides Goering, Ribbentrop and Papen, the defendants include Marshal Wilhelm Keitel and Col. Gen. Alfred Jodl of Hitler's general staff, Jew-baiter Julius Streicher, former Gestapo Chief Kurt Daluege, former interior Minister Wilhelm Frick and the Nazi Labor Front leader, Robert Ley.

Others are Hans Heinrich Lammer, a former state secretary in Hitler's cabinet; Alfred Rosenberg, the "Nazi philosopher"; Walther Buch, who headed the Nazi courts, and Arthur Seyss-Inquart and Hans Franke, who were Hitler's rulers, respectively, for Holland and Poland.

The cell blocks are constructed in three tiers. Each cell is equipped with a bunk, a straw mattress, a chair and a table. Each cell door has a port which is always open and guards look through the port every 30 seconds, as a routine anti-suicide precaution.

It is Goering, to the surprise of everyone, who seems to view the approaching trials with the most fortitude. Previously he had clamored for sedatives, wrung his hands in hysterics and suffered a heart attack because of his abnormal fear of thunderstorms. But of late he seems calm.

Ribbentrop, on the other hand, seems so depressed that he has been removed from the second tier and given a cell on the ground floor. As with the other prisoners, he is fed in his cell, but a guard stands over him constantly while he eats.

The day "the 14" arrived from Luxemburg it was necessary to feed them on the regular jail fare, an unappetizing combination of potatoes and a greasy soup provided by the Germans for local civilian prisoners.

When Andrus heard of this he entered the cell block and said: "I am sorry you have to eat the kind of food you Germans give your prisoners."

Subsequently they were provided with regular food prescribed by Allied regulations for prisoners of war.

Church Chairman Fined $200 on Building Count

VANCOUVER (CP)—Charles Bentall, chairman of the trustees of the First Baptist Church here, was fined $200 and $5 costs in police court Wednesday for constructing a building costing $3,000 when a permit issued to him called for only $1,500.

The defence was that the building was for children connected with work of the church.

"The church," said Magistrate W. W. B. McInnes, "has no more right to break the law than any one else."

The defendant tried to tell the court "it was a pretty poor return for work for children."

The INTERNATIONAL SCENE

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE

The vast reverence which the Japanese people have for their God-emperor is being demonstrated daily as the Tokyo government proceeds cautiously with the dangerous task of implementing its capitulation to the Allies—dangerous because the militarists are against it, and because the general public is undergoing a terrible shock, having been led to believe Nippon was winning the war.

This reverence has nothing to do with Hirohito's capabilities. It would still be there if he were a moron. It rests in the fact that the people believe they are ruled by a divine being—a living God. They've believed it since 660 B.C. when, according to legend, the first emperor ascended the throne. Actually Hirohito has been more or less of a figurehead—but even the greatest and most progressive of his subjects approach his presence with diffidence.

We see an excellent example of the Mikado's power in the attitude of Field Marshal Count Juiichi Teruchi, Japanese commander in southeast Asia. Des-

Canadians Freed From Japanese Soon To Be Sent to Philippines

By WILLIAM STEWART
 MANILA (CP)—Approximately 1,000 Canadians will be among the 32,000 Allied prisoners of war evacuated from Japanese camps to the Philippines.

The evacuation of both prisoners and internees will be carried out as quickly as possible by the U.S. recovered personnel division replacement command, the American Red Cross and occupation forces entering Japan.

The initial case of Canadians who eventually will come to the 5th U.S. replacement depot near Manila, will be in the hands of the Australian section at general headquarters.

Canadian groups are en route from Canada to relieve the Australians. In the meantime, Col. Richard Malone, Canadian public relations officer, is maintaining liaison with the Australians in connection with arrangements for evacuated prisoners and Col. Moore Cosgrave, Canadian military attaché at Canberra, Australia, is due in a day or two to handle the work of preparing for the prisoners' arrival until Canadian teams arrive.

It is not yet known if the 300-odd Canadians in the Hongkong area will also be evacuated to Manila. However, arrangements for them will be supervised by Brig. Kay, Canadian military attaché at Chungking.

Recovered personnel units which will accompany occupation forces will make lists of liberated prisoners before their evacuation and cable them to the War Department at Washington. It is presumed this service will apply to Canadians.

Messages to next of kin will be accepted immediately. Once prisoners have been

 "Quaker Puffed Wheat makes a Mighty Tasty Breakfast"

JOHN WAYNE: "Food Shot From Guns! Why that line's as famous as a Hollywood star! I guess there's one breakfast grain everyone knows."

QUAKER MAN: Yes, John, that's because "shot from guns" makes the world's most delicious ready-to-eat cereal. You see, we actually load giant guns with plump, golden wheat—then BANG! BANG! they explode, big, crisp, fluffy grains 8 times normal size. With some milk and fruit, you've got a breakfast de luxe.

JOHN WAYNE: Now you're talking my language.

QUAKER MAN: And you husky fellows should know this, too. Quaker Puffed Wheat is easily digested, too. It gives quick food energy, which is especially important at the start of the day. What other breakfast could give you the nourishment of wheat and be so delicious.

JOHN WAYNE: That's for me, partner. I want Quaker Puffed Wheat on my table tomorrow morning.

U.S. UNEMPLOYMENT FIGURES

THERE MAY BE SOME SIGNIFICANCE attached to the figures purporting to give the number of unemployed in the United States 10, 20, or 40 weeks from now. They run into millions and presumably are calculated from those displaced by the cancellation of war orders—without, perhaps, taking into consideration the numbers of those reabsorbed by the reconversion of plants to peace demands. The constant allusions to these millions made by the departments concerned in reconversion may be made for certain purposes. The more colossal the task is made to appear, the more credit to the persons responsible for its performance, provided that it is performed with a minimum of friction and a maximum of acceleration.

The significance may be political or it may be anxiety on the part of a multitude of "servants of the people" at Washington really to give service and show their aptitude for the job they are expected to do. Mr. Henry Wallace, Secretary of the Department of Commerce, and former rival of Mr. Truman for the Democratic nomination for vice-president, has been remarkably silent about his "sixty-million jobs." Mr. Schwellenbach, the Secretary of State for Labor, who succeeded Miss Perkins, and Mr. Vinson, the Secretary of the Treasury, succeeding Mr. Morgenthau, are both vitally concerned in Mr. Wallace's plans. Anything the latter proposes must show that commerce can produce the jobs; anything Mr. Schwellenbach suggests must allow for Labor's acquiescence in the new technique, whereby costs of production are as of much concern to labor as they are to management; and anything Mr. Vinson has to provide must be proven to stimulate production, not stifle it by taxation.

It is perhaps as well to publicize the difficulties beforehand and receive approbation after they are surmounted. It is doubtless due to the immediacies of the aftermath of war—such as terms for the Japanese, and the actualities of returning men—which shroud what is actually taking place to provide the jobs needed. Whatever the reason of this particular emphasis on vast number of unemployed in the neighboring republic, it is probably better to be well informed as to the magnitude of the problem than to rely on panaceas based on wishful thinking.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY

THERE IS AN INJUNCTION IN THE words of Dr. G. S. H. Barton, federal Deputy Minister of Agriculture, which Canadians cannot afford to ignore. In a statement today he has emphasized the point that only through wholehearted support of rationing to reduce civilian meat consumption can Canada do her full share in preventing starvation in Europe. That announcement again underscores the responsibility resting on this country as one of the great larders of the world.

It reaches far beyond the mere matter of providing extra tidbits for the tables of those who can afford luxuries. It leaves with all Canadians the decision as to whether or not millions of the human family shall live or starve. Nor does it end there. The problems of peace, difficult as they are, will be magnified immensely if the peoples on whom the solution of those problems depend go hungry. Reason and conciliation will be hopeless in the anger that will arise if they are not fed.

These are considerations which may well check incipient grumblings on the part of those who, when food controls deny them the privilege of free choice in quantity and quality. And they may find considerable comfort in the knowledge that Canadians will at least secure as much as they need from a nutritional point of view.

'DECONTAMINATION' ENDS

NOT THE LEAST OF THOSE DIFFICULT tasks eliminated through Japan's surrender is the "decontamination" of South Pacific islands overrun by the Nipponese during the high tide of the aggression. These elements were by-passed by the Allies as they squeezed inward the ring of Tokyo's military strength.

To the Australians had fallen much of the work of cleaning up such strongholds. It was one of the most difficult assignments of the South Pacific theatre. The men from "down under," experts as they had become in jungle fighting, faced the exceptional hardships not only of difficult terrain, but the added dangers of meeting an enemy who had familiarized himself with the locality, was living off the land, and was in a position to move with exceptional fluidity from one area to another. In many respects the clean-up was a deadly game of hide-and-seek, with the seeker always taking the major risk.

The surrender of an estimated 120,000 Japanese in the various Pacific islands will be welcome news for those men whose excellent performance of a specialized task won them the acclaim of all familiar with operations against the Oriental enemy.

HOW TO CONTROL IT

ALL THE DECENT WORLD WILL FERVENTLY hope that Canada, Britain and the United States, the three nations instrumental in the production of the atomic bomb, will guard the secret of this latest agency of destruction until its complete control is assured. In his first "report to the nation" after the Potsdam Conference President Truman intimated that he would request Congress to co-operate toward this end and to make sure that instead of wreaking measureless havoc upon the entire globe, it may become a perennial fountain of world prosperity. "It is the intention of His Majesty's government," says Prime Minister Attlee, "to put all their efforts into the promotion of the objects thus foreshadowed, and they will lend their full co-operation to that end."

It would be comforting to believe that the power of the atomic bomb is so terrible that men will no longer dare to wage war. But only a comparatively short time ago men were saying that the bomber plane had some potentialities for destruction that the thought of its use against armies and innocent women and children alike was utterly unthinkable. Probably they made the same prediction about the use of gunpowder for battle purposes. Hiram Maxim had a similar idea when he invented the machine gun. But the melancholy fact remains that no weapon, no matter how terrible, has so far curbed war-making. And some of the best human minds down through the centuries have devoted much of their talent and energy to creating more elaborate and efficient methods of bringing quick and widespread death to their brothers.

Now Allied scientists, in a fantastic race with the scientists of their enemies, have perfected the most horrifying agent of death the world has ever known. In doing so they have probed another secret of the universe. They have taken the motivating energy of life upon this planet and, without being able to explain it, have harnessed and used it. The explosion of the first atomic bomb was no more shattering than the announcement of its existence. The employment of atomic energy, surely one of the great scientific achievements of our time, promises incalculable changes in history and human life. Yet is man ready to be trusted with the fruit of his own scientific wisdom? His record to date is not good.

Too often the great scientific leader has been followed by stupid men and vicious men who have cheapened and perverted the gift of his discoveries. It might be better if men would devote their energies for a few years to raising their moral and ethical stature to the point where they could employ their present scientific advancement decently and wisely, rather than devising more sources of power which, in the wrong hands, are sources of cataclysmic murder.

But what is to be done with this new weapon in the future—presently a secret known only to a few persons in Canada, Britain and the United States? It is a product of three nations which genuinely love and want peace—a fact for which the world may well thank God. And it is more important that the United Nations Organization prevent future war than we run our ships and airplanes by atomic energy instead of steam and gasoline. It is more important that the world keep the peace through sincere desire and friendly effort than through fear of another war's destruction. But the effort, though never yet honestly made, is the world's only hope.

A HOME FOR PEACE

DESPITE REPORTS FROM LONDON TO the effect that greater favor is being shown to Geneva as the United Nations Security Organization headquarters than prevailed prior to the conference in San Francisco, there are serious obstacles to the return to the old League of Nations buildings of the agency on which man again sets his hopes for peace. Primarily there are the material objections of Switzerland's failure to establish diplomatic relations with Russia, and the fact, that as a neutral, she is not yet a member of the United Nations. Probably more effective than those considerations, however, is the psychological attraction arising from the frustration of those hopes for peace which died in the old League's home. The events of the years immediately preceding the Second World War, in effect, made the white marble palace little more than a gaudy sepulchre for pious aspirations.

These are factors which cannot be ignored when the "Big Five" lend their influence to the selection of a site for the new organization. They are arguments which should encourage the belief that the cause of future peace might well be served by housing the new machinery in new surroundings. As we have said on several occasions, few locations could rival Vancouver Island sites for the physical home of the Security Organization. Quite apart from the climatic and scenic amenities available in such areas as the Malahat, there is here an environment conducive to good will. In this favored part of Canada the example of good neighborliness is emphasized by the mutual esteem of the people of the Dominion and the United States, an example which impressed the world before the ties of a common cause bound the United Nations together. Geographically, the location has outstanding merit. None will question the position Canada holds as the keystone in friendly British-United States relationships. And here, on the Pacific, far from the political discords of Europe, is a country in close proximity to Russia and China, whose vital roles in the future need no elaboration.

Present day "rubbing alcohol" serves a double purpose. "After using it, you don't mind the smell of skunks."

Civil Liberties

By BEN MALKIN

LIFTING THE BAN on the Communist party now brings within the law substantially all the organizations, political, religious or cultural which the government found it necessary during the war to outlaw under the authority vested in it through the medium of the War Measures Act. In principle, the lifting of these bans will meet with general approval, and the restoration to all these organizations of the right to maintain their membership and propagate their views in the ordinary way at the very moment when they could no longer endanger and sabotage the Canadian war effort is an excellent indication of the inner strength of the democratic system in Canada.

Besides the Communist party, among the other organizations on which the wartime ban was removed (some two years ago) were Jehovah's Witnesses, Technocracy Inc., The Ukraine Farmer-Labor Temple Association, the Finnish Organization of Canada, the Finnish Society and the Finnish Society of Toronto.

ALL THESE GROUPS, as well as others such as the German cultural societies which mushroomed all over Canada after the access of Hitler to power, at one time or another and for varying reasons actively opposed the war effort and sought to retard it either by discouraging recruitment into the armed forces or by attempting to persuade workers in war plants to diminish production.

That the nation, through its government in Ottawa, could not permit such activities if the country were to maintain a maximum war effort was clear, and it became plain right at the outset of the war that the government would have to assume certain dictatorial powers in order to meet the emergency. This was done under the Defence of Canada Regulations.

WHEN THE GOVERNMENT first began to exercise authority under these regulations, to make arrests, to ban organizations, and to confine people to internment camps, there was a great deal of protest and a great deal of honest criticism by Canadians of the arbitrary powers which the government had assumed. It was feared that in the future, when the emergency had passed, so solid a precedent would have been established that the government would be reluctant to relinquish its new-found powers of making arrests.

One group of prominent western citizens in 1940 prepared a memorandum which it submitted to Ottawa, protesting the great use of arbitrary powers by the government, and expressing the fears at that time latent among a large body of citizens. The memorandum said, in part:

"When fear and terrorism come in, democracy goes out. Instead of the plain-spoken free citizen there appears the spy and the informer. Even already the regulations would seem to be having some such results. The possible effects on our contribution to the war are not hard to imagine. Not much war effort can be got out of a people coerced into action by fear."

THE DOUBTS of the wisdom of the Defence of Canada Regulations expressed here were actually groundless. Administration of the regulations was, on the whole, carried out by the government not with a view to tyrannizing over the nation, but with a view to removing all elements who actively opposed the war effort during the most critical period in this country's history. The speedy restoration of personal rights and privileges to those organizations and individuals who suffered under the Defence of Canada Regulations is ample proof of the strength of democratic government in Canada.

Even the Communist party, which has been the political party longest under the ban and therefore has suffered most from it, recognizes that the party was banned as a wartime measure only. Tim Buck, national leader of the Labor-Progressive Party (formerly of the Communist party) and Leslie Morris, Ontario leader of the party said recently that the lifting of the ban on the Communist party had no particular significance but was merely a result of the end of the war.

WHILE THEY ARE correct in feeling that the ban on the Communist party was a wartime measure (the active opposition to the war against Germany by the Canadian Communist party in 1940 and until June 22, 1941, when Soviet Russia was attacked gave the government ample cause to consider the party inimical to the Canadian war effort) the party leaders are wrong in saying that the lifting of the ban had no particular significance.

The significance is that Canada is still a democracy, and that when a wartime emergency no longer exists, when the nation's safety is not at stake, there is room in this country for political parties of every complexion to appeal to the public for a hearing without interference by the authorities.

Amidst recriminations, accusations, examinations and exclamations of the principals engaged in the trial of Marshal Petain, it seems astonishing that nobody had the courage to introduce that Gallic touch without which no tragedy, drama, or comedy in France is regarded as complete, by shrieking "Cherchez la femme!" Hollywood please note!

To end the controversy regarding the time period over which Germany has to be occupied. It is now suggested that the troops required should be called "educational" not "occupational." Then there will be a long waiting list for those who desire to go "overseas." And their period of service will have to be strictly limited to one year only.

Casals—All Music, No Temperament

(From the BBC London Letter)
IT IS SELDOM that a man so great as Pablo Casals wears so few traces of the public idol. The Spanish 'cellist, the greatest artist of his instrument in the world, has no tricks of personal appeal, no "temperament," by which to trap a quick and excited attention. He is not interested in such matters. He plays the 'cello. He is the 'cello. When that bald head is bent over in an attitude of profound meditation on what the instrument is doing—as if it were doing something quite apart from its maestro—music is born afresh and the composer's thought is recreated as faithfully to the original as it is possible to imagine.

Enemy of tyranny, friend of the people, resistor of the Nazis, Casals, who has been living in France, not far from the Spanish border, recently made his first appearance in England since the war. With the BBC symphony orchestra he played the Elgar and Schumann Concertos, and received one of the most resounding ovations any artist has ever had. At the end of the concert, attended by over 6,000 people at the Royal Albert Hall, London, and heard by millions of wireless listeners, he was applauded and recalled for a full five minutes.

IN A TALK after his first rehearsal with the orchestra, Casals, obviously moved by the fact of being in England again, and by the warmth of his welcome by the orchestral players, said: "Life begins anew. I do not feel that it is a long time since I was with the orchestra. It has been with me all through the war, when I have secretly listened to its broadcasts, and it is a joy to see again old friends among the players."

Quiet, unassuming, yet with an unmistakable force of personality, conviction and utter integrity, Casals looked at the friends who had gathered round him, and remarked, almost as if to himself, "you know how I love England."

THOSE who remembered previous meetings with this short, stocky genius with the wonderful hands, the impeccable technique, and the magical artistry, asked him where his pipe was. He is a confirmed pipe-smoker. "Ah," he said, diving into the pocket of his coat, "here it is," and produced the familiar curved, well-discoloured, much-worn pipe. "My companion at all times."

He looked almost diminutive as, standing beside his 'cello, he gave it a kind of understanding pat as he left, as from one who has deep communication with another. "You wouldn't think that that man was that man, would you?" said one of the small party after this unmagical-looking magician had gone. But everyone knew what he meant—especially after they had heard his Elgar and Bach.

Letters To The Editor

NEW WAR MEDALS

We note in a recent issue of the Victoria Daily Times that N.D. H.Q. has authorized the wearing of nine new war service ribbons by those servicemen entitled to wear them. That is as it should be. But the question arises in servicemen's circles: How about the Reserve Army? They have done a splendid job and are still carrying on. They have given up much. It is felt that they should be remembered. During the last World War—1914-18—Britain issued a medal for such service. It was called the Territorial Force War Medal. Why cannot our Canada do the same?

The old N.P.A.M. was the backbone of our forces in the field. Before the war they gave up much of their time, that they might be ready in case of war. They were known as Saturday Night Soldiers. We can now say thank God we had them—few as they were.

It is suggested that all members of the reserve army and members of the old N.P.A.M. who volunteered for active service in the active army at the outbreak of World War 2, and did not serve out of Canada, be given a medal for such service. It could be called the Canadian Militia War Medal.

Good luck to your splendid newspaper—the servicemen's friend.
W. P. DAVIES.

WARNING OF ATLANTIS

With the startling news of the discovery of the atomic bombs, and the now practical use of the power of the atom, we are reminded of the half legendary story of the great continent of Atlantis, known to various schools of the occult sciences, and more than half believed by the Greek savants from whom we may assume Pliny, the great Roman historian, obtained his data.

The legend gives an account of the might and power of the people of Atlantis, of their scientific achievements, their cultural development, the glory and the greatness of their civilization, which outmatched anything we have in this day and age.

But there arose in the land a mighty division of the people. One party, led by the priesthood of the Gods, sought to rule the land. By various means they discovered the use of a secret energy and used this to obtain power. Their efforts released forces of nature over which they had no control. The great continent of Atlantis was rent and torn asunder by great convulsions and sank, with all its rich treasures and wonders, beneath the seas.

The truth or otherwise of the legend is not of great practical importance, but the lesson to be learned is that "it could happen here."

Unless we make some practical attempt to develop ourselves as men and not continue the technique which is rapidly leading us into the jungle of apes, the judgment of the Gods will descend on us also, and all our prayers and supplications will be in vain.

Let us indeed think or perish.

Wins Heroism Award

Raymond "Johnny" Jones has been awarded the Bronze Star for heroic and meritorious action during the drive through the Siegfried Line and Ruhr River offensives.

Sgt. Jones was intelligence and reconnaissance sergeant with the U.S. 9th Army.

This picture, with the young Russian's arm around his shoulder, was taken the day the 9th

Atlantic Harder on Ships Than Pacific

Aboard the cruiser H.M.C.S.
Uganda when she saw action in the Pacific, L.Tel. W. V. Dunham, R.C.N.V.R., said that in his opinion
the smaller boats used in the Atlantic fighting took a harder beating than the Pacific ships.

When asked what he thought about statements in the newspapers regarding the comparison of Pacific with Atlantic naval warfare, L.Tel. Dunham said there was no comparison between the Battle of the Atlantic and the fighting in the Pacific, because in the Atlantic the boys were not only using smaller boats, but it was more the submarine menace
they were fighting at the time.
While in the Pacific the majority of the boats were larger, and the menace was pretty well from the air.

"Besides, while the boys in the Atlantic fought the cold, heat was the problem as far as the weather was concerned in the Pacific," he said.

Completely baffled at the Japs'
total disregard for their lives, L.Tel. Dunham said that it was hard to form an opinion of the Jap as compared with the German.

A frequent guest at Prince Robert House, he said that he had traveled the globe from east to west and had never found a better place anywhere. Adding:
"Prince Robert House is not a hostel—it is a home."

In the navy from the beginning of the war, L.Tel. Dunham was born in Winnipeg, but has lived on the coast most of his life. With the C.P.R. before hostilities began, he plans to operate a garage as soon as possible.

No Extra Sugar Available for Bees

The sugar situation in Canada is such that there is little hope of obtaining extra supplies for bees in B.C., the sugar administrator in Montreal informed Hon.
K. C. MacDonald, minister of agriculture, by wire today.

In his wire the sugar administrator pointed out that domestic consumers and industry had been drastically cut and that beekeepers might reasonably be expected to make a contribution and co-operate in the conservation of sugar also.

There can be no sugar provided for new business, which includes new apiaries, the wire continued, and the 15 pounds for winter feeding of each hive is all that can be provided at present. It may be necessary to temporarily abandon efforts to increase the bee population in Canada.

Beekeepers will have to be urged to keep enough honey in the hives to feed not only the bees of the hive but for any package bees that may be purchased to replace hives that die out, the sugar administrator said.

However, the administrator said that it was possible that the matter could be re-opened in the spring if the situation was found to be bad at that time, and he said he was quite prepared to confer personally with provincial agricultural officials at that time if it were felt necessary.

In view of this Dr. MacDonald said efforts to obtain extra sugar for B.C. beekeepers would be temporarily dropped.

Visitors From United States

Misses Mary Pauline and Anne Arlene, daughters of Dr. and Mrs. Altringer, Kansas City, Mo., who with their parents are spending a holiday in Victoria, guests at the Empress Hotel. Pauline is a student at Medical School, St. Louis University while Ann is at the Convent of Notre Dame de Sion, Kansas City. Both are "thrilled with Victoria" and hope to spend future vacations here.

Personal Notes

Miss June Howard, 2636 Blanshard Street, is visiting in Vancouver.

Mr. Cecil Smyth, who was in Victoria for the Moore-Woolley wedding, has returned to his home in Duncan.

Mrs. George Roberts, Bellevue, Wash., with her two sons, is spending a two-week holiday in Victoria.

Mrs. Kenneth McKenzie, Regina, is the house guest of Mrs. Charles Eilers at her summer home at Langford Lake.

FO. Percy Gladstone, who has just returned from overseas, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Kelly, Langford Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fox, "The Moorings," Arcadia Street, have as their guests, Ronald Espin, Langley Prairie.

Miss Hilda Riddell of Ottawa is the guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. A. Riddell, 1464 St. Patrick Street, prior to going to Vancouver, where she will enroll at University of British Columbia.

Mrs. F. G. Mulliner and her daughters, Mrs. F. H. Kearney of Vancouver and Mrs. W. R. Freethy, entertained at the home of the latter, 2178 Central Avenue, with a miscellaneous beauty shower in honor of Miss Lucy Hussey, who is to be married to Flt. Lt. Charles Richard Berry, R.C.A.F., the end of this month. Gifts were presented in a huge powder puff made by Mrs. Mulliner. A buffet supper was served. Mrs. T. F. Hussey presiding at the tea urns. Invited guests were: Mesdames T. F. Hussey, A. R. Berry, D. E. Alcorn, A. Bismard, J. Campbell, G. Bogaard, Seattle; R. M. Cumberland, V. DiCastri, K. Fraser, F. Green, M. Jamieson, R. Meadows, J. Helen Burgess Sailor's Bride Centennial United Church was the setting Tuesday, Aug. 21, at 8, for the marriage of Helen Burgess, daughter of Mrs. E. P. Burgess, Royal Oak, V.I., and the late W. J. Burgess, and St. Hugh MacDonald, R.C.N.V.R., son of Mrs. S. MacDonald, Toronto, Ont. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. R. Ashford, B.A.

Escorted by her brother, Pte. Walter Burgess, the bride entered the church wearing a white embroidered satin gown with bouffant skirt, fitted bodice and sweetheart neckline. A floor-length embroidered veil and an arm bouquet of peach gladioli and Talisman roses completed her ensemble.

Two attendants, Mrs. Mary Slater, sister of the bride, in peach silk jersey with lace-trimmed neckline, matching lace Juliet cap and carrying a bouquet of peach gladioli and mauve delphiniums as matron of honor and Miss Shirley Leming, cousin of the bride, in pink net over taffeta, matching Juliet cap and bouquet of pink gladioli and mauve asters, as bridesmaid, headed the wedding procession.

Sto. Hugh McCloskey, R.C.N.V.R., was best man and Pipe-Maj. Raymond Gandy and Roger MacDonald, R.C.A.F., acted as ushers.

During the signing of the register, the choir sang a marriage hymn. Pipe Maj. Raymond Gandy piped the newly-married couple from the church to the strains of "Brown Haired Maid."

A reception was held at the Y.W.C.A., where the bride's table was centred with a wedding cake flanked with vases of roses, gladioli and heather.

For a honeymoon in Vancouver the bride traveled in a peach gaberline frock, turquoise hand woven topcoat, white accessories and a corsage bouquet of gardenias and roses. On their return the young couple will live in Victoria.

Miss Unamie Shakespeare, who returned a few weeks ago from three years' overseas service, attached to the Army Service Corps in London. Miss Shakespeare, daughter of the late Fred Shakespeare, a former employee of the Government Printing Bureau, is the guest of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Patton, Old Esquimalt Road. She and another sister, Miss Hazel Shakespeare, have just returned from a holiday trip to Banff and Calgary.

Heather Day
Next Saturday

On Aug. 26, just 31 years ago, as the soldiers of the 1st contingent in the First World War marched down the gangway at the C.P.R. wharf, to leave for overseas, ladies of Lady Douglas Chapter, L.O.D.E., gave each lad a sprig of heather "for luck."

That small act of kindness was the beginning of a larger idea. Each succeeding year, in August, ladies of the chapter have sold sprigs of heather on the street in memory of the event. Proceeds are used for benevolent work of the order.

Heather Day this year will be next Saturday. Headquarters will be at the L.O.D.E. Room, 202 Union Building. All members of the 1st Contingent are invited to the room to sign the book they have signed for so many years.

Helpers are needed and anyone interested is asked to phone Mrs. B. Parsons, G7491 for the city and Mrs. McAllister, E9594 for Esquimalt.

Personals

Mrs. R. F. Walker and Mrs. R. B. Saint-Evens left on this afternoon's boat for their homes in San Francisco, after spending a holiday as the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. McConnan, 1174 St. David Street.

To mark the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. William Stanley, 452 Chester Avenue, will be at home to their many friends on Friday, from 3 to 5 and in the evening from 7 to 9.30.

Mrs. Ann Espley, 166 1/2 Medina Avenue, with her young son, Bobby, has gone to Vancouver, to visit friends, while waiting for her husband, Sgt. F. Warren Espley, C.A.S.F., who is expected to return to Canada soon. Sgt. Espley's mother, Mrs. G. Espley, resides at 1286 Pandora Avenue.

Miss Dorothy Blenkinsopp, whose marriage takes place on Friday, was guest of honor when Mrs. J. T. Lambie and Miss P. Pearce, were hostesses at a miscellaneous shower, held at the home of the former, 1027 McClure Street. Guests were: Mesdames J. Blenkinsopp, R. MacArthur, R. Taylor, D. L. Faichen, R. Nagy, Misses O. Mycock, P. Jones, M. Scott, M. Muschamp, G. Russell, J. Parker, T. Wake-lyn, R. Fraser, E. Jacobson, F. Syrett, M. Ramsfield, C. Mayhew and E. Ross.

Too Busy Laying-Off To Hire Shipbuilder

VANCOUVER (CP)—A laid off shipyard worker complained the selective service office here had sent him to a job that didn't exist—in a shipyard.

"They laughed at me at the yard," he told William White, president of the Boilermakers' Union. "They said they were too busy with layoffs to hire me."

Alkazar Mansions Sold

Sale of the Alkazar Mansions, 1206 Fairfield Road, to a Victoria syndicate, by Robert Porter and Sons Ltd., Victoria, was reported by George Randall, agent for the sale, Wednesday. Modernization of the 32-year-old building to convert it into an up-to-date apartment hotel to attract the tourist trade would be started soon, Mr. Randall said. The syndicate planned to operate more than one modern apartment hotel in Victoria, he revealed.

Bowling Party—Continuing with the summer program, approximately 30 members of St. John's A.Y.P.A. spent an enjoyable evening recently at Gibson's Bowladrome. Scores were high with C. M. Herbert, top bowler of the evening, followed by Bertie Ray. Tuesday a baseball game has been arranged and members will meet at Victoria High School.

Silent Tribute—At the regular meeting of the Women's Benefit Association in Son's of England Hall, the members stood in silent tribute to the memory of Mrs. Florence Irvine, an old pioneer member of the association, who passed away recently. Mrs. M. Stephen, was in the chair. A letter of thanks was received from Capt. Foster for donation for entertainment of British Navy ratings. Next sewing meeting at the home of Mrs. H. W. White, 2535 Scott Street. Regular meeting Sept. 3 canceled owing to holiday.

Near End of Transit Hearing For Fairfield-Gonzales Route

Hearing of applications by B.C. Electric Railway Co. Ltd. and Blue Line Transit Co. for concession of a proposed Fairfield-Gonzales area bus route before a two-man Public Utilities Commission with Dr. W. A. Carrothers, chairman, and L. W. Patmore, commissioner, reached the point of argument by council Wednesday.

Noting a letter from the Blue Line, saying that company felt it had not been fairly dealt with by the city council, Dr. Carrothers asked that there be placed on record the date of applications made by the two transit companies, the date of meetings at which the applications were considered by the city, and decisions made on the matter at all city meetings concerned.

M. F. Hunter, city clerk, said first application for the route had been received May 25, 1945, from the Veterans' Sightseeing and Transportation Co. Ltd., embracing the Blue Line, and a report had gone from the city transportation committee to the city council June 4, recommending the Blue Line be advised no action would be taken on the offer at the moment, but that, as soon as possible, the city intended to call for tenders on a bus service in the Fairfield-Gonzales area.

Second application was a petition handed in by J. Bycroft, intervenant at the hearing from that area. Further correspondence and meetings ensued until, on July 16, the transportation committee reported that offers had been secured from both the B.C.E.R. and the Blue Line regarding a temporary bus service in the Fairfield-Gonzales area, and acceptance of the B.C.E.R. offer was recommended, Mr. Hunter said.

Protest was received from R. D. Harvey, K.C., counsel for the Blue Line, he said, requesting the matter be held in abeyance, and later, that, whatever action was taken by the city, the public utilities commission be notified, and acceptance of the B.C.E.R. proposal be still held in abeyance.

EMPLOYEES CALLED

Four one-time Blue Line employees, who later entered B.C.E.R. employment, were called by F. Davidson, president of the Street Railwaymen's and Drivers' Union here.

PO, R. E. Smart, Canadian navy motor transport, said he had left the Blue Line where he received 40 cents an hour wage in 1936, and had eventually gone to the B.C.E.R. While at the Blue Line, he said, when on day work, he had been required to report at the depot, get a bus, get change and drive to Monterey and Oak Bay Avenues before his wages started.

On the night shift, he continued, he had to report to the office, then go to Oak Bay and Monterey Avenue as a passenger on a bus before his wages started, then, when he was finished, drive the bus back to the depot.

The particular point where his wages stopped after work was only five minutes from his home, he said. He had complained a number of times, he added, and had been told he could take a cab home, as that would be more business for the Blue Line, and if he did not like that, he could quit as there were always more that would like his job.

When Mr. Harvey noted the letter given PO. Smart by the company when he left, and asked if he did not think it was quite a good reference, Commissioner Patmore interjected, "Mr. Sangster should have got such a letter from him."

A. Doherty said he had been driving for the B.C.E.R. one year at 85 cents an hour and had been getting 81 cents an hour before the strike. He joined the B.C.E.R. in March, 1937, he said, and before that had been on the Blue Line at 45 cents an hour. He had several reasons for leaving the Blue Line, he continued, and the change from a 45 cent wage to a 69 cent wage had made a difference.

Leslie Green said he had been with the B.C.E.R. four and a half years and, prior to that, five years with the Blue Line, starting with that company at 40 cents an hour and getting 50 cents an hour when he left.

Mr. Harvey asked: "You went as a streetcar operator?" Mr. Green answered "Yes."

"Were the B.C.E.R. bus drivers getting the same wage as streetcar operators?" Mr. Harvey pressed.

"No," answered Mr. Green. G. D. Macbeth said he had been with the B.C.E.R. since December, 1940, and before that had been with the Blue Line about seven months, getting a wage of 50 cents an hour. He joined the B.C.E.R. at 69 cents an hour as a streetcar operator, he said, and in answer to a question by Mr. Harvey, added, "but B.C.E.R. bus drivers got more than the Blue Line."

FARE STRUCTURE

R. B. Mathews, assistant to the B.C.E.R. vice-president, said he wished to explain what he meant when he said in his brief, "Our existing fare structure for overall transportation in Greater Victoria is the lowest in Canada." He meant so far as overall transportation was concerned, being supplied to a whole community. In contradiction to being supplied to some local communities, he said. He also meant privately-owned transit companies and not publicly-owned companies, he added.

E. N. Horsey, B.C.E.R. general superintendent, said the B.C.E.R. was a member of the Canadian Transit Association, which association produced charts of transportation rates in Canada. The last chart had been received in 1942, he said, but a reply was received later of a query asking the chart be brought up to date. The chart distinguished between publicly-owned and privately-owned transportation systems, he said.

Mr. Harvey asked him what the cash fare and ticket fare was for Hull, Quebec, and what that city's population was. Mr. Horsey answered 5 cents was the cash fare, and that he did not know the population, but believed it to be less than Vancouver.

Mr. Harvey continued with three other Canadian cities: Regina, Brantford and Kitchener. Mr. Horsey answered Regina was municipally owned, and the fare was 5 cents; the fare in Kitchener, which was commission operated, was 5 cents; and the fare in Kitchener, commission operated, was also 5 cents.

"Do you mean municipal fares are cheaper?" queried Mr. Harvey. "Well, they are a part of municipal operations," answered Mr. Harvey.

R. N. Gooding, E. F. Gould, W. B. Anderson and Mrs. Ellen Simmons appeared as representatives of some residents of the Fairfield-Gonzales area who desired to see the Blue Line come in.

Mr. Gooding traced the petitions sent through the district regarding the proposed service, and said finally when they heard the city had accepted the B.C.E.R. offer, they had felt they would have to accept the city decision and had done so, until they heard not everyone was satisfied, and a request had been made for a delay in action on the matter. Then, he said, a meeting had been held to discuss the matter of the Blue Line proposal, where the meeting decided it felt the Blue Line had not been fairly dealt with, as that company was the first to make the proposal. He did not see why residents should have to pay more than the 5 cent fare proposed by the Blue Line.

Maj. L. Bullock-Webster has again been selected as one of the judges of the Montreal play writing contest, sponsored by the Catherpian Guild. He has been a judge of this competition on two previous occasions.

Oak Bay police took 11-year-old Margaret Fairfull, 1894 Hampshire Road, to Jubilee Hospital for treatment Wednesday after a collision between her bicycle and a car at the corner of Oak Bay Avenue and Hampshire Road.

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

A MATEUR golf in Victoria has experienced a real uplift in recent weeks by the return of a number of top-notch players who have been absent from the links serving with the armed forces. Which all tends to make the forthcoming city championship tournament appear one of the finest in years. From all reports it will be a real battle to determine the champion for the year. The crown for the next 12 months. Sharpening up their games are such fellows as Harold Pretty, Bob Morrison, Harold Brynjolfson, Vic Painter, Roy Strain and Dr. Bigelow. It will seem like old times with these players competing. Chatting to Morrison the other day he told me of a game he had the other day at Oak Bay with Brynjolfson. A few years back this pair were great rivals for city honors and every time they met it was a toss up as to the winner. "Although both Harold and myself were a bit rusty after such a long off I don't think it will take long to get back into the old swing," Morrison said. Dates for the city tournament will be set at a meeting to be held in the near future.

VANCOUVER seems to have come up with another sweet baseball prospect in pitcher Sandy Robertson. Latest reports have the young right-hander being sought by no less than five professional clubs, including two major league outfits. They are Boston, Brooklyn, San Francisco Seals, Portland Beavers and Seattle Rainiers. He is proving just as much in demand as was young Danny Holden a couple of seasons back. Ernie Johnson, well-known scout for the Boston Red Sox, will interview Robertson next week. The Vancouver youngster worked in a game here last year and at that time showed a world of speed and a sharp breaking curve ball. In his twenties, big and strong Robertson is the type of pitcher a pro club likes to get hold of.

IN ESQUIRE's latest poll of sports writers of Canada and the United States Babe Didrikson Zaharias was named the greatest woman athlete by a margin of 7 to 1. Taking 66.6 per cent of the first place votes the Babe held a wide edge over Helen Wills Moody, former queen of the tennis courts. Sonja Henie rated third with Gertrude Ederle fourth and Suzanne Lenglen fifth. Others mentioned included Betty Berg, Stella Walsh, Eleanor Holm and Glenna Collett Vare. Stella Walsh continues a sprinting career that has made her the class of fast fields for 16 years.

TWO FACTORS were repeatedly emphasized by those who chose Babe Didrikson as the star of stars among women athletes. Babe's versatility impressed one and all and, secondly, her credit was heavily boosted by her performance against men. Gene Sarazen, with whom Babe made her professional golf debut on an exhibition tour, said: "She'll make any fellow's hands sore trying to keep ahead of her drives. All I can do about it is go along until she gets one of her very best, then let out and pass her just to remind her whom she's playing against." Before Babe turned pro, her record was 632 victories in 634 athletic competitions.

Fosters in Fastball Final

Edge Sports Club 6-5

Joe Foster's advanced to the city final of the women's senior B fastball playoffs, Wednesday evening, defeating Sports Club 6 to 5 after an extra inning. Foster's will meet Adverts, winners of the second division playoffs, for the championship. The series is expected to get under way Monday night.

Young Helen Pettigrew marked up her 20th mound win of the season in beating Sports Club. She has lost only four games since play opened early in the summer and boasts one of the finest records in local fastball history.

After Foster's had built up a 4 to 0 lead going into the final inning, the club blew up and Sports Club took full advantage to score four runs and deadlock the score. In the first of the eighth Chris Gibson and Mary Manson smacked out hits with the former scoring on a passed ball. Another single by Pat Yeamans scored Manson with what proved the winning run. In the last of the eighth Sports Club managed to score one run, but were retired with the tying runner on base.

K.V.'s juveniles took the lower island title last night by defeating Black and Whites, 15 to 8, for their second straight triumph. K.V.'s will meet the up-island winners for the island crown.

At Athletic Park tonight Pacific Sheet Metal and Brentwood Aces will meet in the second game of the city senior B men's final. P.S.M. won the first game and another victory tonight will give them the title. Starting time is 6.30.

Bob Whyte Heads Fastball Umpires

Differences that have existed between the Lower Island Fastball Association and a number of the umpires were straightened out last night at a special general meeting, with Bob Whyte being named as umpire-in-chief.

It is expected that Whyte will call a meeting of the umpires in the near future when reorganization of their association will take place.

At last night's meeting it was announced that 10 umpires have signified their willingness to work in future games. All umpires affiliated with the former association will be reinstated upon application to Whyte.

Two Track Marks Set at Hastings; Duncan Rides Well

VANCOUVER (CP) — Two track records were set at Hastings Park Wednesday, the fourth day of the Brighthouse Park Race Meet.

Sapworth, six-year-old brown gelding saddled by Dr. K. R. Darbyshire of Victoria, with Jimmy Sivewright in the saddle, whipped over the six furlong and 105-yard distance in 1:25 to clip two-fifths of a second off the record set by Miss Marfa over the same oval last Monday.

In the feature, Goldsteworth, owned by Dave Diamond, of Vancouver, went the seven-furlong route in 1:26 3-5, two-fifths of a second faster than the previous mark set in 1937.

In winning the feature—the Lancaster Handicap—Goldsteworth defeated Mary Mahone, H. J. Percy's Prairie Flash; the Midlothian Stable's Dalketh, and Mrs. M. Funn's Sunny Park.

Breaking on the top, Mary Mahone set the pace all the way to the quarter pole but when challenged by Goldsteworth was forced to give way and finished four lengths back. Dalketh broke third and was never worse, finishing three lengths behind Mary Mahone.

Harvey Duncan, veteran prize circuit rider, rode two winners of the seven-furlong card. He brought in Brighton King in the fourth and the longest, Carbine Man, in the sixth.

Seattle, Portland Register Wins In Coast League

Portland's Beavers, feeling the hot breath of the surging Seattle Rainiers on their necks, snapped out of a three-game losing streak last night to keep intact their three-and-a-half tilt lead in the Coast League.

The Beavers evened their series with the Los Angeles Angels as one apiece, winning 9 to 3 behind the seventh-inning pitching of Roy Helsner. Seattle kept pace with its second in a row over Oakland, 8 to 5, virtually spelling curtains for the Oaks' hopes of a first division berth.

Sacramento squared things at one-all with the San Francisco Seals on a 5 to 3 decision, and Hollywood drew even with San Diego by beating the Padres 6 to 3.

Helsner's rescue work brought him his 18th victory of the year against 11 losses.

For the second night in a row Seattle had to check a late Oakland rally, which again fell short. The Oaks hopped on veteran Carl Fischer for four runs in the ninth before Syl Johnson was rushed in to retire the side. Two of the tallies were scored on left fielder Charley Metro's homer. The Rainiers knocked Floyd Strome out of the box on a four-run attack in the third, gaining their other four counters off Jack Lotz and Al Raimondi. Fischer got credit for the win, his 17th.

Major League Baseball

Washington Wins Two

Washington has a decided schedule advantage in the American League race today as the Senators head east only half-game behind Detroit after completing their final western trip.

Only 14 of the Nats' 38 remaining contests will be played away from the home lot while the Tigers will be on the road for 29 of their 39 games.

The Senators ended their western wanderings yesterday by knocking over Cleveland in both ends of a doubleheader, 3 to 0 and 6 to 5 in 11 innings. Roger Wolf, who owned a 4-15 won and lost record in 1944, earned his 15th decision of the year by blanking the Tribe with five blows in the first game.

Dizzy Trout, apparently recovered from his aching back, stopped Philadelphia, 4 to 1, as the Tigers made it five out of seven over the A's. Connie Mack gambled and lost with a 19-year-old right-hander, Bill Connelly, from Alberta, Va., who was making his first start in organized ball. It was Trout's fourth successive victory and his 13th of the campaign.

YANKS BEATEN
New York's hopes had a relapse in Chicago where the Yankees blew a three-run lead in the last of the ninth and finally lost to the White Sox in the 11th, 6 to 5. Mike Tresch's double followed by Kirby Farrell's single did the trick, dooming milkman Jim Turner to his fourth loss. Ed Lopat went all the way to his ninth triumph despite 12 Yank hits.

St. Louis Browns finished their stand against the eastern invaders with a fanoy 14 out of 20 record, but failed to gain appreciably on the leaders. After Bob Muncie had earned his eighth success in a 4 to 2 opener, Boston turned around and took a 4 to 2 evener despite a desperate two-run St. Louis rally in the last of the ninth.

All National League clubs were idle.

Navy Defeats Army In Fiery Ball Game

With Jack Walker's home run over the centre field wall with two mates aboard in the sixth inning, providing the margin of victory, Navy defeated the Army 7 to 4 last night in the first game of their best-of-five city championship baseball semifinal series.

Friday night the V.M.D. and R.C.A.F. will resume their semifinal playoff with the shipyarders holding a one-game lead as a result of their win Monday night. Starting time is 6.15.

Game produced plenty of action with feelings between the players reaching a high point in the eighth inning when Navy outfielder Jack Walker was called out at the plate after jumping into the air as he approached catcher Red Sutherland. The two players rushed at each other but were pulled apart as teammates dashed out of the dugouts to prevent trouble. Earlier in the game Latiff bumped third sacker Westine unnecessarily hard in a force play. Following the Walker-Sutherland incident the players were riding each other with sarcastic jibes.

Veteran Stan Douglas was the winning hurler, although combed by the Army for 14 hits, including a pair of doubles. He struck out two and walked a pair, Jean Paul David opened for the Army but retired in the sixth frame after Walker's circuit blow to be replaced by Joe Minauld who pitched shutout ball the rest of the way. Navy collected 16 hits off the pair.

COSTLY ERROR

Each club came up with a single run in the second inning with the Army pushed over another counter in the third to move ahead 2 to 1. In the fifth the troops added another single but the Navy came back in their half to push across two runs to tie the score after Westine had given them a life by dropping a pop up in front of the pitcher. Douglas, first man to face David in the sixth, dropped a blooper back of shortstop for a hit. Dietrich bunted and all hands were safe when David threw wild to first. Bayduck laced the ball through short for a single, scoring Douglas and Walker followed with his home run. That was all for Mr. David. Army staged a belated rally in the ninth that ended after one run had scored when Westine was called out at the plate attempting to score on a single by Almas.

During the seventh inning Stan Douglas, voted the league's most popular player in a poll of the fans, was presented with a $50 War Bond by Sandy McNaughton of the Northwestern Club. Douglas then made the draw for the Longines watch, donated by Little and Taylor, and 12-year-old Johnny Shields, 1521 Camosun Street, was the lucky winner.

Short score follows: R. H. E. Army — 4 14 5 Navy — 7 16 1 Batteries—David, Minauld and Sutherland; Douglas and Bayduck.

Dockyard Legion Elects Capt. Donald Honorary President

Capt. C. D. Donald, R.C.N., N.O.I.C., Esquimalt, Wednesday night was elected honorary president of the Esquimalt Dockyard branch of the Canadian Legion.

G. K. Slade was chairman.
The meeting, attended by some 150 members, accepted its largest application list for membership when 50 names were presented by the secretary. Financial reports showed the branch to be in a healthy position.

S. G. Haines, chairman of the new premises committee, reported that the matter of obtaining a home of their own had progressed so rapidly that the situation had now been handed over to the trustees of the branch, and hoped by the next meeting full details will be revealed.

Maj. Carl Fallas, district zone representative, addressed the meeting at some length, quoting from interviews of the Dominion president with the Prime Minister. He stated at the next session of Parliament the problem of solving Canada's national flag would come up. The flag, he said, would be the Red Ensign, with possibly some addition. It was announced that the provincial secretary would commence half-hour broadcasts over a radio station by the middle of September to keep the general public aware of legion activities.
One of the items to be discussed will be housing. It was suggested some timber operators had closed down to avoid the excess profits tax, to the detriment of the home builder, while other mills were exporting large squares to avoid the cost of manufacturing lumber.

Considerable discussion developed over the high cost of real estate, some lots, half an acre in size with gravel soil, being offered for $600 to $900
each. Veterans were advised to consult the Land Settlement authorities before making purchases.

Mass Fish Deaths In Quamichan Lake

All fish in Quamichan Lake near Duncan were killed during the week-end by the temporary high alkalinity and high oxygen content in conjunction with high temperature of the water, according to Dr. Ferris Neave, Nanaimo, biologist of the Fisheries Research Board of Canada.

Such mass deaths of fish occur occasionally sometimes even in localized ocean areas, Dr. Neave said, adding that dead fish had accumulated on the shore in thousands.

The occurrence was the first of its kind in the experience of Frank P. Weir, game warden at Duncan. Medical health officer at Duncan gave instructions that domestic water from the lake should be boiled.

Brechin Sawmill Changes Hands

Nanaimo Sawmills Ltd., employing 22 men, has been purchased by W. C. Shelly and Reginald Shelly from Capt. W. Higgs and associates.

Situated at nearby Brechin waterfront, the mill is operated by steam at present, but arrangements are being made to install electrical equipment and to make it thoroughly modern with a capacity of 75,000 feet a day, according to Reginald Shelly.

Although it is buying its logs at present, the company has acquired timber holdings which it intends to log.

PEOPLE OF WENDISH
STOCK LIVE IN AREA
AROUND GERMAN CAPITAL

The other day I heard a radio
speaker report from Germany,
"The present population of Berlin is about 3,000,000."

That figure was only an estimate. If we wish to have an exact census report, we shall have to wait for some time. If the German capital now has "about 3,000,000," the population has gone down about 1,300,000 since the last census was made before the outbreak of the second World War.

Many of the people still in Berlin are living in cellars. Their homes were blasted by bombs, and they are getting along as well as they can below the surface of the ground.

Berlin is near the centre of Brandenburg, a province which has been, to a large extent, the heart of the German nation. It was named after Brennbir, a town which existed in the time of Charlemagne.

Teutons and Slavs fought for the land in Brandenburg in ancient times. Parts of it were won first by one side, then by the other. As the centuries went past, the Teutons, or Germans, proved too strong for the Slavs and drove them away.

It is interesting to note that Brandenburg still has citizens who remind us of that old struggle between Teutons and Slavs: I am thinking of the Wends, who are of Slavic stock.

Something like 150,000 Wends live in Brandenburg and the nearby province of Saxony. These people have kept a few of their old customs. Some of them still speak the Wendish language, as well as German.

Thus Germany has "an island of Slavs," and this fact may make us think of the few "islands of Germans" in Russia at the outbreak of the second World War.

If we go into the matter, we find that all large countries in Europe have little islands, or groups, of people of some other national stock. To put all of these people back with their own national groups would be as hard as to unscramble an egg.

The best hope for Europe is that people of all national groups will learn to live together peacefully and happily. This has happened, to a very large extent,
in the United States.

Land Clearing to Start by Fall

Hopes of getting started on the provincial government land clearing scheme, which has been held up for lack of priorities to obtain the necessary heavy machinery, this fall were expressed by Hon. K. C. MacDonald, minister of agriculture, today.

Until V-J Day he said the Wartime Prices and Trade Board had refused to give any priorities to the provincial government to ob-

Local Investiture For 20 B.C. Heroes

Twenty British Columbians back from the war will receive decorations earned in sea, land and air conflict at an investiture on Sept. 4 at Government House. Lieutenant-Governor W. C. Woodward will present the decorations on behalf of the King in a brilliant ceremony. Plans for the investiture, which will follow the regular routine, are in process of preparation at Government House.

Naval hero, Cmdr. C. A. King will receive the D.S.O. Now stationed in Victoria, Cmdr. King has the D.S.C. and bar and the United States Legion of Honor among his many decorations.

Lt. Cmdr. Cornelius Burke, Lt. Cmdr. J. Douglas Maitland, nephew of the Attorney-General, and Lt. T. E. Ladner, known as the "Three Musketeers," will receive the awards they gained in the fight at sea. Cmdr. Burke will receive the D.S.C. and two bars, Cmdr. Maitland the D.S.C. and one bar, and Lt. Ladner the D.S.C. and one bar.

Others to receive their decorations at the investiture will be: Brig. J. R. S. Lough, the C.B.E.; Sqdn. Ldr. H. Tilson, D.S.O.; Sqdn. Ldr. W. K. Gwyer, M.B.E.; Maj. J. D. Baxter, M.B.E.; merchant navy chief engineer Thomas Atkinson, M.B.E.; Capt. W. S. Huckleval, M.C.; Lieut. A. C. Peck, nephew of Col. Cy Peck, V.C., the M.C.; Group Capt. R. S.

Turnbull, bar to D.F.C. and A.F.C.; Flt. Lt. A. G. Brunet, D.F.C.; F.O. A. L. Butler, D.F.C.; F.O. R. F. Smith, D.F.C.; Capt. (Matron) E. A. Earshman, Royal Red Cross; Cpl. L. Kreger, D.C.M.; Sgt. C. V. Gale, M.M.; Cpl. S. C. Butterick, M.M.; and Sgt. R. C. Crosbie, B.E.M.

Prices Board Won't Alter Decision

Despite representations from Hon. K. C. MacDonald, Minister of Agriculture, the Okanagan Egg Producers Association, and the Fraser Valley Poultry Association, the Wartime Prices and Trade Board has refused to alter its decision to lower the ceiling price on poultry meat September 1, Dr. MacDonald said today.

The Prices Board is lowering the ceiling price from 25 cents a pound to 21 cents a pound, he said, and the B.C. producers petitioned that the present ceiling be held until October 1, pointing out that a considerable tonnage of poultry meat would be lost if the order goes into effect.

The late hatches of chickens will not mature until late in September to prime marketing size, but if the present order goes into effect poultrymen will kill off their meat flocks early in order to get the better price.

It is estimated by Dr. MacDonald that the lowering of the ceiling will cost B.C. poultrymen approximately $40,000. He received word today that the board would not alter its decision.

Predict Jump in Real Estate Sales

As soon as emergency shelter regulations are lifted, Real Estate men expect a large influx of prairie people to Victoria seeking the homes out here that they are not allowed to get now, a survey revealed today.

More real estate business is expected from people who could not get houses during the war and from servicemen with their gratuities, especially those with five years service overseas.

When the shipyard workers came from the east there was a flurry in the sale of smaller houses, and when those who are returning go home they will be replaced by the soldiers and the prairie people. Not many workers from the prairie are expected to leave the Island, and more people with money want to come out from the western provinces than there are people expected to return there.

MANY INQUIRIES

Real estate firms report that inquiries have been received from all over Canada and in some cases from other parts of the world.

Sales are experiencing a temporary lull due to the shipyard layoffs and the holidays, but in a few weeks conditions will be back to the way they have been in recent years for an indefinite period.

It is pointed out that there is still a shortage of houses even though peace has come and building is going on all the time so that the slack is gradually being taken up.

Early Decision Promised As Bus Hearing Ends

Submissions by council today concluded the hearing of applications by the B.C. Electric Railway Co. Ltd. and the Blue Line Transit Co. for a certificate to run a temporary bus service through the Fairfield-Gonzales area.

At the opening of this last day of the hearing, Commissioner L. W. Patmore asked R. D. Harvey, K.C., counsel for the Blue Line, if granting the concession to that company would not take away practically all passenger trade from the No. 6 line of the B.C.E.R. running to the area.

Mr. Harvey answered it would not as the Blue Line proposal was practically similar to that of the B.C.E.R. and would serve to supplement the existing street railway line.

In his submission, Mr. Harvey told the commission the interest of the public would not be prejudiced by granting the Blue Line the concession as there would be an additional service provided.

Anyone wanting to go to points not served by the Blue Line could still use the No. 6 street car, he said.

He noted the Blue Line's statement, through managing director H. L. Sangster Wednesday that the company was willing to have a transfer agreement with the B.C.E.R., but that company did not appear interested.

Noting the representations of F. Davidson, president of the local street-railwaymen's and drivers' union, who feared the proposed five-cent fare of the Blue Line would result in low wage rates for the bus drivers, Mr. Harvey pointed out his company was paying substantially the same wages as the B.C.E.R. and had been operating on a five-cent fare for some time.

The Blue Line would not reduce wages below the rate being paid by other transportation services, Mr. Harvey added.

The commission was not sitting in appeal against any decision of a municipal council, Mr. Harvey continued. "You don't have to find the city derelict in its duty in granting the concession to the B.C.E.R. for you to grant the concession to the Blue Line," he said.

"You have heard representations which never went before the city council so there would be no reflection on the city if you grant the concession to us," he added. "You must decide, I submit with respect, which best serves the interests of the public."

He found it significant that not one city councillor had appeared before the commission to support the city brief which was presented at the hearing by A. J. Patton, city solicitor.

The Public Utilities Act asked the commission to protect the public, he continued, and what better protection than giving it the cheapest rate.

Speaking on the question of public support of the Blue Line proposal, Mr. Harvey said the commission had before it the petitions of many people who favored the proposals of the Blue Line.

The petitions had been followed up by a meeting of 350 to 500 people to discuss the Blue Line proposal and eventually decide to support it, he said. "You can't buy that type of support," Mr. Harvey concluded.

Mrs. E. J. Rutledge, a resident in the Fairfield-Gonzales area, spoke briefly following Mr. Harvey's submission. The Blue Line had made the first offer, she said, and residents in her district felt they had made a much better offer with their 15-minute trip which would let an office girl get half an hour home at lunch hour, and the company's proposed five-cent fare and 80-cent weekly pass.

The City Council was supposed to be "of the people and for the people," she said, but added that after what had happened she did not feel that could be said now.

"It seems so utterly one-sided," she argued. "I'm only asking that the Blue Line be given a square deal."

B.C.E.R. COUNSEL
R. Manzer, counsel for the B.C.E.R., dealt with the various submissions made by Mr. Harvey. He spoke of Mr. Harvey's contention that the No. 6 streetcar service was inadequate and said if there had not been grounds for extension there would have been no purpose in seeking inauguration of a further service.

Mr. Sangster had said that before the war the Blue Line had offered a whole transit system to Victoria. "At any rate, since 1938, he has been as great a sinner as we have," Mr. Manzer said.

Referring to the so-called gentlemen's agreement between the B.C.E.R. and the city, Mr. Manzer said when the B.C.E.R. franchise had terminated in 1938, the city fathers had been faced with the problem of providing transportation. A referendum showed the majority of the public was only interested in any bus declared surplus. He was not here to inspect any particular property, he said.

One co-operative was registered, the Log Salvage Co-operative Association, Vancouver.

Warrant Officer of R.A.F. Accused of Helping Germans

UXBRIDGE, Eng. (CP) — A Royal Air Force warrant officer who was shot down over Germany Aug. 17, 1943, faced a court-martial here today on 11 charges of giving away air war secrets and generally aiding the enemy during the time he supposedly was a prisoner of war.

One charge was that he worked as a German radio propagandist.

The accused airman is Raymond Davis Hughes, Volunteer Reservist aerial gunner. He pleaded innocent to all charges on the ground that he was confined to a prisoner-of-war camp until he was liberated by the Russians April 2, 1945.

The case was the first of its kind since the war, although the other R.A.F. men, also former prisoners of war in Germany, are due to face trial soon. Under Air Force regulations the death penalty would be imposed.

Hughes was taken into custody by the Germans soon after he had parachuted from his burning plane near the Baltic Sea coast. The prosecution said he told the Germans of methods used by the R.A.F. in a raid, and later advised them on methods they could adopt for improving the defence against attacks on Berlin.

Mr. Patton, speaking for the city's decision to grant the concession to the B.C.E.R., reminded the commission the city had a very strong moral obligation to the B.C.E.R. which came to aid of the city in the 1939 war emergency.

He also said every consideration had been given the Blue Line proposal and the city had taken into consideration the interests of citizens throughout the whole of Victoria.

Mr. Davidson, speaking for his union, again deplored the proposed five-cent fare on the grounds of its affecting the wages of the drivers. He took four Canadian cities whose fares were five cents as examples and quoted wage figures all lower than the 85 cent an hour wage paid here.

Dr. W. A. Carrothers, chairman of the commission, assured both companies' representatives the commission would reach a decision as soon as possible so as not to delay inauguration of a bus service in the Fairfield-Gonzales district.

Mr. Patton, speaking for the city's decision to grant the concession to the Blue Line, he said.

"You have heard representations which never went before the city council so there would be no reflection on the city if you grant the concession to us," he added. "You must decide, I submit with respect, which best serves the interests of the public."

De Gaulle, Truman Discuss Indo-China

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman and Gen. Charles de Gaulle opened their second round of conferences today amid indications French Indo-China has become a major discussion topic.

OTTAWA (CP) — Arrangements for Gen. de Gaulle's visit to Ottawa still are indefinite, but he is expected to be here for at least part of the day Aug. 29 after his visit to Washington.

The visit is expected to be primarily a courtesy call as no outstanding problems between Canada and France require discussion by government heads.

Most Serious Stage Past by Autumn

OTTAWA (CP) — Conversion of Canadian war plants to civilian production will have passed its most difficult stage before autumn, Reconstruction Minister Howe said today in an interview.

"Practically all contract cancellations from the United Kingdom and other countries now are available," said Mr. Howe. "Most of them have already been made effective and the plants know just where they stand."

Because many of the contracts taper off, it has not yet been possible to compile figures on the immediate effect of the cancellations, the minister said.

"There is plenty of work to be done and there is a big demand for factory space, but it is inevitable there should be a short period of confusion in the change-over," Mr. Howe said.

1 in Every 6 Japs Killed, Wounded or Homeless by Raids

NEW YORK (AP) — Nearly 10,000,000 persons, a sixth of the population of Japan's home islands, were killed, wounded or made homeless "as a result of enemy air raids during the course of the war in greater Asia," the Tokyo radio said today in a broadcast recorded by the Associated Press.

The broadcast, quoting figures thus far available at air defence headquarters, said the two atom bombs dropped on the homeland killed 90,000 and injured 130,000. The total killed was set at 260,000; injured, 412,000; rendered homeless, 9,200,000.

The broadcast said 2,200,000 houses were completely demolished or burned to the ground, and 90,000 were partially damaged.

Funeral Rites Friday

Rev. T. G. Griffiths will officiate at private funeral services for Robert Gordon Clark Friday morning at McCall's Funeral Chapel.

Father of William J. Clark, manager of the Dominion Hotel, Mr. Clark died at his home, 969 Cowichan Street, Wednesday. A native of Aberdeen, Scotland, he lived in Oxbow, Sask., for 25 years before coming to Victoria, where he resided for the past 32 years.

Application to hold a tag day in April, 1946, was sought by the Queen Alexandra Sororium Junior League in a letter received at the City Hall today.

Light Side of War In York's Comedy

The latest Edward Small laugh riot, "Abroad With Two Yanks," is opening at the York Theatre today, starring William Bendix, Dennis O'Keefe and Helen Walker. This new picture deals with the lighter side of war, with Bendix and O'Keefe playing the roles of a couple of tough Marines who land in Australia on a well-earned furlough. They run into plenty of fun, also plenty of trouble. The girl who is the innocent cause of the trouble is lovely Helen Walker.

Allan Dwan directed this new United Artists release and John Loder, George Cleveland and Janet Lambert head a strong supporting cast.

New Film Unique In Comedy Routine

Youth will have its day today at the Cadet Theatre, when Paramount's whimsical motion picture, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," arrives to delight youngsters and adults alike. It's a movie like no other, to emanate from Hollywood, insiders report.

The film, an adaptation of the bestseller by Emily Kimbrough and Cornelle Otis Skinner, is a gay and refreshing story describing the actual experiences of the authors on a trip abroad. Gail Russell and Diana Lynn take the parts of the Misses Skinner and Kimbrough, respectively, and present, it is said, one of the gayest and most charming pictures of two beautiful young girls who, in search of romance, hilariously complicate the lives of everyone they meet.

4 Top Stars Appear In Color Musical

Songs, comedy, romance and girls—mostly girls—feature Paramount's "Bring On the Girls," technicolor musical which comes tomorrow to the Dominion Theatre starring Veronica Lake, Marjorie Reynolds, Eddie Bracken and Sonny Tufts. Any one of these stellar stars can support a picture alone but the quartette together makes things four times as entertaining.

The highlights are almost too numerous to mention. For example, Spike Jones and His City Slickers perform one of their outstanding novelty routines; Johnny Coy executes two dance numbers worthy of such performers as Fred Astaire or Bill Robinson; Marjorie Reynolds shines in a ballroom stanza in addition to warbling a hit tune, "How Would You Like to Take My Picture?" while Sonny Tufts surprises everyone with his vocal prowess to his own accompaniment on the piano.

ATLAS THEATRE

Hailed as the most picturesque of Tarzan adventures, "Tarzan and the Amazons," now at the Atlas Theatre, deals with the indomitable ape-man's adventures among a savage tribe of women warriors in the heart of Africa. Keeping themselves and their treasures a secret from the rest of the world, the Amazons want no intruders. What happens when a party of scientists insist on penetrating their valley forms the exciting plot. Johnny Weissmuller, Brenda Joyce and Johnny Sheffield have the top roles in the Sol Lesser production for RKO Radio.

Mother Given U.S. Award

MRS. W. H. LORD and COL. J. H. HARRINGTON

Col. J. H. Harrington, U.S. liaison officer of the 4th Air Force, pins on Mrs. W. H. Lord of Youbou the Order of the Purple Heart in a ceremony at fortress headquarters, Work Point Barracks. Mrs. Lord's son, 2nd Lieut. Orvil H. Lord, lost his life in action with the U.S.A.A.F. in the South Pacific. "We are making this presentation of the Purple Heart, awarded for military merit, to show the appreciation of the United States forces to a Canadian mother who gave her son," Col. Harrington said.

Credit Granters To Hear Crowder

L. S. Crowder, (above) general manager, National Retail Credit Association, an international organization of credit granters, will be in Victoria Monday next to speak to local credit granters at a luncheon at Spencers at noon. His subject will be "Post-war Credit."

With a background of 25 years in executive positions with some of the largest retail establishments, Mr. Crowder is internationally known. His experience and knowledge is a great asset among the credit associations of Canada and the United States.

The development of retail credit has been fostered by the National Retail Credit Association since 1912. There are almost 20,000 members, covering all types of retail business; banks, oil companies, utilities and hospitals. These are located in Canada, the United States, England and Australia.

Recognized for its co-operation with government agencies, its present program calls for the preparation of postwar credit plans now, so that retail credit will continue to be extended on a sound basis after present controls have been removed.

Heads Clothing Drive

William A. Ackland has been named Port Alberni chairman for the national clothing collection drive, to be held in October.

The clothing will be sent to liberated Allied countries where distribution will be made free to war victims by U.N.R.R.A. B.C. is second among the provinces to organize for the drive.

C.P.R. Steamer Service To Continue on Lakes

MONTREAL—Continued relief for Canadian Pacific Railway transcontinental trains now handling their heaviest traffic in repatriation of service personnel was assured today by the decision to keep two of the C.P.R.'s Great Lakes steamships on the Port McNicoll-Fort William run until Sept. 22.

R. G. McNeillie, passenger traffic manager, said the Assiniboia and Keewatin would be the vessels kept on the popular summer run which provides a pleasant break in the rail journey for cross-country travelers.

Little Natural Ice Used at Local Plant

Use of natural ice from the mountains for the icing of fish caught on the B.C. coast is not proving satisfactory in Victoria because of the unusual size of the ice blocks and lack of crushing facilities, it was learned here today.

B.C. Packers bought 100 tons of ice from the C.N.R. to help out the seasonal shortage. Most of it was used in Vancouver, where the great chunks were crushed at the National Harbors Board ice plant there.

B.C. Packers plant at Ogden Point received 25 tons of the shipment and sent it out aboard one boat, the W No. 6.

"It is beautiful ice," said W. A. Ashby, local manager, "but the blocks are 800 pounds in size and we have no facilities here for crushing them. We are now getting artificial ice from Vernon," he said.

Restore Sleeping Car

Temporary restoration of the overnight sleeping car between Vancouver and Penticton is announced by G. Bruce Burpee, general passenger agent, Canadian Pacific Railway. The service, which was withdrawn in mid-June because of heavy military movements, will be restored effective August 24 from Vancouver and the following night from Penticton, and will remain in effect until Sept. 4.

Schooner Races History

NORTH SYDNEY, N.S. (CP)—Capt. Ben Pine, who skipped the Gertrude L. Thebaud in international fishing schooner races against the famous Bluenose, has expressed the opinion there is little chance of revival of international fishing schooner racing.

His reason was that practically all boats now being built are power-equipped, and as such are too costly for racing purposes.

Held for Sentence

John Rots, North Sooke road worker, was remanded in custody Wednesday until Saturday morning, when he will be sentenced for assault causing bodily harm.

Appearing before Magistrate H. C. Hall in provincial police court, Mrs. Josephine Payne said Rots had grabbed her by the head, thrown her on top of a heater, pulled some hair out, and pushed her son against a stove, breaking metal pieces from the side of it. Later, in Rots' car, she testified, Rots had pulled more hair out, and threatened to choke her son, take her home and chop her head off, and come back and finish the rest of the people about the house.

Testifying in his defence, Rots said he had consumed about half a bottle of wine or cocktails before visiting the neighbor where Mrs. Payne was visiting.

Constable Quinn prosecuted, and A. J. Helmecken appeared for the defendant.

Pilchard Catch May Be Failure

Fears that the pilchard catch for this year may be a complete failure was expressed today by G. J. Alexander, assistant commissioner for fisheries. To date only about 2,000 tons of the fish have been caught by fishing boats waiting for the run to start and it is beginning to look as if they are not going to come up from California.

Last year, Mr. Alexander said, the pilchard run started about Aug. 15 and continued good until the end of the season in October, with 50,000 tons of fish being caught and packed. However, up to today no signs of the fish were in sight. Some years they come as early as July 10.

The salmon pack will be the best for five or six years, he said, and the loss occasioned by the cannery strike is not as serious as was feared at first.

Most of the northern canneries had a sufficient stock of cans to tide them over until the plant got back into production, Mr. Alexander said, while a few had to close down for a day or so.

The majority of the August cheques have been mailed from the family allowances branch here to the 98,000 B.C. families with children, W. R. Bone, divisional manager, said today.
